Ankara Karaosmanoglu:

Rethinking Modernity and National Identity in Turkey Sibel Bozdoğan, Reşat Kasaba, 1997 In the first two decades after World War II social scientists heralded Turkey as an exemplar of a modernizing nation in the Western mold The essays in this book are the first attempt to examine the Turkish experiment with modernity from a broad interdisciplinary perspective encompassing the fields of history the social sciences the humanities architecture and urban planning

Landscape Archaeology in the Near East Bülent Arıkan, Linda Olsvig-Whittaker, 2023-01-12 Collected papers from the 3rd symposium of the the Society for Near Eastern Landscape Archaeology Ranging from the Palaeolithic to the classical Near East papers consider settlement and movement for trade with an overarching theme around the conservation of important archaeological landscapes and developing technology for the study of landscapes Turkey and the EU Harun

Arıkan, 2017-03-02 The relationship between Turkey and the European Union is an important issue in European integration With the EU beginning accession talks with Turkey this is a vital moment for the future as the EU deals with a central question that has been on the agenda for over forty years Turkey's membership Since the first edition EU Turkey relations have clearly taken different directions There have been considerable developments in Greek Turkish relations the Cyprus issue the domestic politics of Turkey including human rights and the protection of minorities and the changing security environment post 9 11 Furthermore recent enlargement has been an important turning point for the EU This extended and revised edition addresses these major developments and assesses the implications of Turkish membership for the current EU structures The book is a timely addition to the existing literature for students and academics of European and Middle Eastern Studies Turkey's Relations with the West and the Turkic Republics Idris Bal, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 An analysis of the relations between Turkey the West and the newly independent Turkic Republics in the context of the Turkish Model proposed and supported by the West as a possible model for development in the Turkic Republics It summarizes the Turkish Model of development as applied in Turkey including its shortcomings and discusses the role of Turkey in the area after the collapse of the Soviet Union from the point of view of both the West and Turkey itself It also analyzes the possible reasons why the Turkish Model was proposed and how the Turkic Republics received it and why it declined from favour in a short period of time Strategic Relations Between the US and Turkey 1979-2000 Ekavi

Athanassopoulou, 2014-07-11 Taking the period from the end of the 1970s to the end of the 1990s this book critically examines the evolution of the strategic relationship between the US and Turkey during this period with a particular focus on the Middle Eastern context Strategic Relations Between the US and Turkey employs interviews with US Turkish and Israeli officials and archival research in order to offer an alternative reading of the realities that shaped bilateral co operation through multi level analysis The unraveling of these realities enlightens the reader about the past course of events but also aids the understanding of the dynamics of the relationship today Essential reading for students and scholars of U S and

Turkish foreign policy this study of co operation between a super power and a relatively weak state in the international system will also be of use to those interested in International Relations Diplomatic History and World Politics more broadly

Turkey Sibel Bozdogan, Esra Akcan, 2013-02-15 Turkey Modern Architectures in History offers a journey through the iconic buildings of Turkey that begins with the end of World War I when the new Turkish Republic was born out of the disintegration of the Ottoman Empire includes its democratization in the midst of the Cold War s competing ideologies and concludes with the present day in which Turkey continues to be dramatically transformed through globalization economic integration and a renewed appreciation for its Islamic and Ottoman heritage Sibel Bozdogan and Esra Akcan explore modern institutional masterpieces and architect designed buildings through the decades Their focus includes informal residential plans and they discuss how these have evolved from small settlements to colossal urban quarters that exist at a slippery threshold of legality This richly informative history of Turkey s built environment goes beyond typical surveys of Western modern architecture and is unique in tackling the issue of the modern and contemporary periods that are often omitted in studies of Islamic art and architecture Offering a perceptive overview of modern Turkish architecture this book places it within the larger social political and cultural context of the country s development as a modern nation in the twentieth century

Utopianism in the Middle East and North Africa Thomas Pierret, Simon Wolfgang Fuchs, 2025-03-31 This is the first systematic exploration of the diversity of utopian thought and practice in the modern Middle East and North Africa Beyond intellectual debates utopianism has infused the many ideologies that have shaped contentious politics and governance in the region from state formation to revolutionary transformations conflicts and the recent authoritarian resurgence Drawing on case studies from Egypt Turkey Iran Syria Tunisia and Saudi Arabia contributors address a broad array of utopian visions pertaining to political ideologies such as liberalism secularism Islamic revivalism and socialism but also to fields of expertise and technologies such as urbanism the atom and artificial intelligence Likewise they acknowledge the diversity of players that partake in the production of utopias including writers ideologues activists statesmen experts artists and social media users Moreover authors consider both imaginaries promoted by challengers to the incumbents and visions that serve the consolidation of authoritarianism

Exploring Emotions in Turkey-Iran Relations Mehmet Akif Kumral, 2020-05-15 This book explores emotional affective implications of partnership and rivalry in Turkey Iran relations The main proposition of this research underlines the theoretical need to reconnect psycho social conceptualizations of emotionality affectivity normativity and relationality By combining key theoretical findings the book offers a holistic conceptual framework to better analyze emotional affective configuration of relational rules and roles in trans governmental neighborhood interactions The empirical chapters look at four consecutive periods extending from the end of First World War November 1918 to the resuscitation of US sanctions against Iran November 2018 In each episode global regional contours and dyadic dynamics of Ankara Tehran relationship are examined critically The century long history of emotional entanglements and affective arrangements exposes complex patterning of feeling rules Two countervailing constellations still reign over relational narratives While the 1514 aldran war myth reproduces sectarian resentment and confrontational climate the 1639 Kasr ırın peace story reconstructs secular sympathy and collaborative atmosphere in Turkish Iranian affairs

Settlements and Displacement in Turkey Özlem Erdoğan, Ela Alanyalı Aral, 2023-09-29 This book explores the complex relationship between urban space and displacement in Turkey It evaluates how the displacement of people and cultures has affected the spatiotemporal landscapes of the nation at different periods of contemporary Turkey with an emphasis on various narratives of the relocating population and their relationship to the environment Contemporary cities are constantly changing due to the movement of people from different regions resulting in shifting population patterns globally Understanding displacement and its effects on space are crucial in studying this phenomenon as it not only involves the physical relocation of individuals but also the transfer of cultural practices within a condensed timeframe This process changes the destination of settlements irreversibly This book takes a methodological approach and disciplinary approach examining the migration and displacement of people and its effects upon art architecture culture and politics in Turkish cities This book will be of interest to students and scholars interested in migration and its effects on cities urban planning and architecture

When Greeks and Turks Meet Vally Lytra, 2016-02-11 The relationship between the history culture and peoples of Greece Turkey and Cyprus is often reduced to an equation which defines one side in opposition to the other The reality is much more complex and while there have been and remain significant divisions there are many and arguably more areas of overlap commonality and common interest This book addresses a gap in the scholarly literature by bringing together specialists from different disciplinary traditions history sociology anthropology linguistics literature ethnomusicology and international relations so as to examine the relationship between Greeks and Turks as well as between Greek Cypriots and Turkish Cypriots since the founding of the Republic of Turkey in 1923 When Greeks and Turks Meet aims to contribute to current critical and comparative approaches to the study of this complex relationship in order to question essentialist representations stereotypes and dominant myths and understand the context and ideology of events processes and experience Starting from this interdisciplinary perspective and taking both diachronic and synchronic approaches the book offers a fresh coverage of key themes including memory history and loss the politics of identity language and culture discourses of inclusion and exclusion Contributors focus on the geographical areas of Greece Turkey and Cyprus and on the modern historical period since 1923 up to the present day offering in some cases an informed perspective that looks towards the future When Greeks and Turks Meet will be essential reading for students and researchers working on the cross roads of Greece Turkey and Cyprus on South East Europe and the Middle East more generally It will also be a valuable resource for students and researchers in inter cultural communication cultural and media studies language and education international relations and politics refugee and migration studies conflict and post conflict studies
