Lecky, 2023-12-01 This may be a very common concern we do not want to be forgotten Many go to great lengths to be remembered creating the larger cemetery monuments establishing endowments in their names and seeing to it that named bridges roads and buildings continue their memory And who intends to forget them But it often happens nonetheless Living Light is a focus of writing to preserve memory specifically on what made each of the strongest influences in my life most memorable to me Glimpses of the life of each of these individuals are presented in such a way as to illustrate the Light of faith I saw shining through their life These of whom you may read were all significant unique Living Lights in my life As I pondered and worked to complete this set of writings I could begin to see better the connection and influence of each of these individuals in what I think today and in all I was writing Clearly to me it was time to build this anthology of memory The writing of each entry is meant to honor and preserve the memory of the person whose story I am telling But the greater inspiration to write this comes from the pages of the Gospel of Matthew where Jesus is recorded saying in chapter 5 verse 6 Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in Heaven The works of each of these individuals became Living Light to me shining on steps of the Way of Light that is revealed as the best way of life for our travels here and now I am so grateful to The Father for each one of these people who have been so very significant in my life and I write that their works may shine on Yes I have written in the hope that the people about whom these words are written will not be forgotten In recognizing the Light that each of these individuals was able to shine in his or her unique way the greatest hope is that God will be glorified through the stories of their lives Beyond the

Black Gate Vol. II Anita Sutherland Gardner, James Gardner, 2024-05-15 Shortly after Jim and Anita married they moved to a small thirty acre primitive plot in Parke County Indiana known as the Covered Bridge Capital of America To gain entrance to this property you had to pass through the only structure on the property a black wooded farm gate It was beyond this black gate that Jim and Anita started their journey in life This journey was like many other folks experiences filled with hopes dreams and abounding love to accomplish through hard work the challenges that life gives you to deal with Their life beyond the gate became a happy and fruitful life with many happy memories It also gave Anita the inspiration to write a manuscript Beyond the Black Gate She never lost sight and continued to build upon this endeavor Anita liked to express life in poetry and short essays so this is what this book has become Through these words our life dreams and inspiration are revealed In 2008 Jim and Anita retired to Cleburne County Arkansas on the family farm Anita s roots beyond the black gate went with them After many years as Anita and I finished our labor of love developing our little farm into a paradise to us anyhow we had an Amish neighbor Amos King to build a gate of steel which was mounted by the old wood black gate This new black gate came with us to Cleburne County Arkansas as a moment and continuation action of our lives beyond the black gate New dreams and developments were continued on this old Sutherland and fam until Anita went to rest had yet to meet but they knew each other's work and soon they began a correspondence. Neither man could have imagined the impact their work would have on American political and literary culture nor could they have appreciated the impact they would have on one another. Snyder had thrown over all vestiges of Christianity in favor of becoming a devoted Buddhist and Zen practitioner and had lived in Japan for a prolonged period to develop this practice. Berry's discomfort with the Christianity of his native land caused him to become something of a renegade Christian, troubled by the church and organized religion but grounded in its vocabulary and its narrative. Religion and spirituality seemed like a natural topic for the two men to discuss and discuss they did. They exchanged more than 240 letters from 1973 to 2013, remarkable letters of insight and argument. The two bring out the best in each other as they grapple with issues of faith and reason, discuss ideas of home and family, worry over the disintegration of community and commonwealth, and share the details of the lives they've chosen to live with their wives and children. Contemporary American culture is the landscape they reside on: Environmentalism, sustainability, global politics, and American involvement in literature, poetry, and progressive ideals. These two public intellectuals address issues as broad as are found in any exchange in literature. No one can be unaffected by the complexity of their relationship, the subtlety of their arguments, and the grace of their friendship. This is a book for the ages.
