Michael Kerper, 2017-02-14 Do ghosts really exist? Do I have to give money to every beggar who comes along? Is it okay to be cremated? How many times have you asked questions such as these but never took the time to seek the answer? And not just any answer—a Catholic answer! With wit and enthusiasm, Fr. Michael Kerper, a popular Catholic priest in New England, tackles over two dozen such questions in this fast-paced and thoroughly enjoyable book. Read this book and you'll soon know the answers to questions such as: Holding hands and kissing—why does everyone do something different at Mass? What is, and isn't, a heresy? Why doesn't Pope Francis like pets? What ever happened to Limbo? Why can't women become priests? Can Catholics believe in reincarnation? Is it okay to be cremated? Why are the psalms so violent? Was Christ really born on Christmas Day? Do ghosts really exist? Why do priests get moved? Fr. Kerper tackles each question head-on, relying on Scripture, tradition, the Catechism, and the writing of the saints. Read this book and you'll soon be armed with little-known knowledge that will fascinate and impress all those who have never taken the time to seek the Catholic answer.

God's Word, Your World! 2011-2012 Jennifer Farrell, 2011-03-11 This resource provides a weekly reflection piece for teens that aims specifically at helping them to integrate their faith into their lives more fully. Each weekly resource includes a scripture reflection, a challenge for action, and reflection questions. This resource speaks to the third goal of the USCCB's Renewing the Vision: A Framework for Catholic Youth Ministry. To foster the total personal growth of each young person, parents, Catholic high school teachers, and catechists often find that teens compartmentalize themselves and may demonstrate faith-filled actions within the church or youth ministry setting but behave very differently in other areas of their lives. Teens often mold their actions to obtain the approval of those around them and may be one way at church, another way at home, and another way with their friends. This resource aims to help them to see the importance and rewards of integrating their faith into their life at home, school, church, in sports, and activities with friends, and even online.
