The African Book Publishing Record, 2012

The Power of Morality in Movements Anders Sevelsted, Jonas Toubøl, 2022-11-07 This Open Access book explores the role of morality in social movements Morality has always been central to social movements whether it be in the form of the moral foundations of movement claims politics and ideologies the values motivating participation the new moral principles envisioned and practiced among movement participants or the overall struggle over society s moral values that movements engage in This is evident in movements emerging from recent interlinked crises the crisis of human rights the climate crisis and the developing crisis of democracy In analyzing these current events through a variety of theoretical methodological and empirical lenses this book brings morality to the forefront of the discussion allowing for a rethinking of its role The book is divided into five parts The first part introduces and explores the central concept of the book outlining the dominant existing approaches to morality and ethics in the extant movement and civil society literature The following three parts investigate morality in relation to topics and movements that are either prominent to contemporary politics or salient to the question of morality In these empirically informed parts the authors apply a diverse selection of methods spanning fieldwork historiography traditional and novel statistical analytical methods and big data analysis to a diverse selection of data Topics discussed include refugee solidarity movements male privilege and anti feminism movement environmental and climate justice movements and religious activism The fifth and closing part of the book focuses on the more abstract theoretical question of the relationship between morality and ethics and activist practices and points to future research agendas This book will be of general interest to students scholars and academics within the disciplines of political sociology science and anthropology and of particular interest to academics in the subfields of social movement and civil society studies Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology Peter J. Brown, Svea Closser, 2016-07 The editors of the third edition of the seminal textbook Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology bring it completely up to date for both instructors and students The collection of 49 readings 17 of them new to this edition offers extensive background description and exposes students to the breadth of theoretical methodological and practical perspectives and issues in the field of medical anthropology The text provides specific examples and case studies of research as it is applied to a range of health settings from cross cultural clinical encounters to cultural analysis of new biomedical technologies and the implementation of programs in global health settings The new edition features a major revision that eliminates many older readings in favor of more fresh relevant selections a new section on structural violence that looks at the impact of poverty and other forms of social marginalization on health an updated and expanded section on Conceptual Tools including new research and ideas that are currently driving the field of medical anthropology forward such as epigenetics and syndemics new chapters on climate change Ebola PTSD among Iraq Afghanistan veterans eating disorders and autism among others recent articles from Margaret Mead Award winners Sera Young Seth Holmes and Erin Finley along with new articles by such established medical anthropologists as Paul Farmer and Merrill Singer "Being Down" Ronnie Casella, 2001-01-01 Research reveals the causes of violence in a high school including social inequality among students and the lack of prevention efforts by the staff and proposes reforms to alleviate this growing problem in all schools The Humanities in a World Upside-Down Ignacio López-Calvo, 2018-06-11 Following the metaphor of the world upside down this essay collection highlights the importance of the humanities in addressing along with the sciences pressing challenges in today's rapidly changing world Crossing across a variety of disciplines historical periods and regions in the world this volume represents a useful tool for humanities scholars and students exploring the key role of our disciplines in public debates about pressing issues such as the refugee crisis climate change denialism environmental justice racism and the current worldwide crisis of democracy It provides practical examples of how societies throughout the world have historically coped with unexpected and distressing changes in government core values axiomatic systems assumptions beliefs ideology or cultural constructions The feeling of topsy turvy consternation as a result of sudden harrowing change as is shown here is not new rather it has simply evolved throughout time and space Down in the Chapel Joshua Dubler, 2025-10-16 A bold and provocative interpretation of one of the most religiously vibrant places in America a state penitentiary Baraka Al Teddy and Sayyid four black men from South Philadelphia two Christian and two Muslim are serving life sentences at Pennsylvania's maximum security Graterford Prison All of them work in Graterford's chapel a place that is at once a sanctuary for religious contemplation and an arena for disputing the workings of God and man Day in day out everything is in its twisted way rather ordinary And then one of them disappears Down in the Chapel tells the story of one week at Graterford Prison We learn how the men at Graterford pass their time care for themselves and commune with their makers We observe a variety of Muslims Protestants Catholics and others at prayer and in study and song And we listen in as an interloping scholar of religion tries to make sense of it all When prisoners turn to God they are often scorned as con artists who fake their piety or pitied as wretches who cling to faith because faith is all they have left Joshua Dubler goes beyond these stereotypes to show the religious life of a prison in all its complexity One part prison procedural one part philosophical investigation Down in the Chapel explores the many uses prisoners make of their religions and weighs the circumstances that make these uses possible Gritty and visceral meditative and searching it is an essential study of American religion in the age of mass incarceration Decolonizing Ethnography

Carolina Alonso Bejarano, Lucia López Juárez, Mirian A. Mijangos García, Daniel M. Goldstein, 2019-04-04 In August 2011 ethnographers Carolina Alonso Bejarano and Daniel M Goldstein began a research project on undocumented immigration in the United States by volunteering at a center for migrant workers in New Jersey Two years later Lucia López Juárez and Mirian A Mijangos García two local immigrant workers from Latin America joined Alonso Bejarano and Goldstein as research assistants and quickly became equal partners for whom ethnographic practice was inseparable from activism In Decolonizing Ethnography the four coauthors offer a methodological and theoretical reassessment of social science research showing how it can function as a vehicle for activism and as a tool for marginalized people to theorize their lives Tacking between personal narratives ethnographic field notes an original bilingual play about workers rights and examinations of anthropology as a discipline the coauthors show how the participation of Mijangos García and López Juárez transformed the project's activist and academic dimensions In so doing they offer a guide for those wishing to expand the potential of ethnography to serve as a means for social transformation and decolonization
