Premodern Ecologies in the Modern Literary Imagination Vin Nardizzi, Tiffany Jo Werth, 2019-04-08 Premodern Ecologies in the Modern Literary Imagination explores how the cognitive and physical landscapes in which scholars conduct research write and teach have shaped their understandings of medieval and Renaissance English literary ecologies The collection strives to practice what Ursula K Heise calls eco cosmopolitanism a method that imagines forms of local environmentalism as a defense against the interventions of open market global networks It also expands the idea s possibilities and identifies its limitations through critical studies of premodern texts artefacts and environmental history The essays connect real environments and their imaginative re creations and affirm the urgency of reorienting humanity s responsiveness to and responsibility for the historical links between human and non human existence The discussion of ways in which meditation on scholarly place and time can deepen ecocritical work offers an innovative and engaging approach that will appeal to both ecocritics generally and to medieval and early modern scholars

The Routledge Handbook of Wine and Culture Steve Charters,Marion Demossier,Jacqueline Dutton,Graham Harding,Jennifer Smith Maguire,Denton Marks,Tim Unwin,2022-04-26 This title was a prize winner at the OIV International Organisation of Vine and Wine Awards 2023 The link between culture and wine reaches back into the earliest history of humanity The Routledge Handbook of Wine and Culture brings together a newly comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of contemporary research and thinking on how wine fits into the cultural frameworks of production intermediation and consumption Bringing together many leading researchers engaged in studying these phenomena it explores the different ways in which wine is constructed as a social artefact and how its representation and use acquire symbolic meaning Wine can be analysed in different ways by varying disciplines involved in exploring wine and culture anthropology economics and business geography history and sociology and as text The Handbook uses these as lenses to consider how producers intermediaries and consumers use and create cultural significance Specifically the work addresses the following how wine relates to place belief systems and accompanying rituals how it may be used as a marker of the identity and mechanisms of civilising processes often in conjunction with food and the arts how its framing intersects with science and nature the ideologies and power relations which arise around all these activities and the relation of this to wine markets and public institutions This is essential reading for researchers and students in education for the wine industry and in the humanities and social sciences engaged in understanding patterns of human ingenuity and interaction such as sociology anthropology economics health geography business tourism cultural studies food studies and history

Wine and Place Tim Patterson, John Buechsenstein, 2018-01-02 The concept of terroir is one of the most celebrated and controversial subjects in wine today Most will agree that well made wine has the capacity to express somewhere a set of consistent aromatics flavors or textures that amount to a signature expression of place But for every advocate there is a skeptic and for every writer singing praises related to terroir there is a study or a detractor seeking to debunk terroir as a myth Wine and Place examines terroir using a multitude of voices and multiple points of view from science to literature from winemakers to wine critics seeking not to prove its veracity but to explore its pros its cons and its other aspects This comprehensive anthology lets the reader come to one's own conclusion about terroir

Raw: Architectural Engagements with Nature Solveig Bøe, Hege Charlotte Faber, 2016-04-08 Through cross disciplinary explorations of and engagements with nature as a forming part of architecture this volume sheds light on the concepts of both nature and architecture Nature is examined in a raw intermediary state where it is noticeable as nature despite but at the same time through man's effort at creating form This is done by approaching nature from the perspective of architecture understood not only as concrete buildings but as a fundamental human way both of being in and relating to the world Man finds and forms places where life may take place Consequently architecture may be understood as ranging from the simple mark on the ground and primitive enclosure to the contemporary megalopolis Nature inheres in many aesthetic forms of expression In architecture however nature emerges with a particular power and clarity which makes architecture a raw kind of art Even though other forms of art as well as aesthetic phenomena outside the arts are addressed the analogy to architecture will be evident and important. Thus by using the concept of raw as a focal point this book provides new approaches to architecture in a broad sense as well as other aesthetic and artistic practices and will be of interest to readers from different fields of the arts and humanities spanning from philosophy and theology to history of art architecture and music.

Around the World in Eighty Wines Mike Veseth, 2017-11-01

Inspired by Jules Verne's classic adventure tale celebrated editor in chief of The Wine Economist Mike Veseth takes his readers Around the World in Eighty Wines. The journey starts in London Phileas Fogg's home base and follows Fogg's itinerary to France and Italy before veering off in search of compelling wine stories in Syria Georgia and Lebanon. Every glass of wine tells a story and so each of the eighty wines must tell an important tale. We head back across Northern Africa to Algeria once the world's leading wine exporter before hopping across the sea to Spain and Portugal. We follow Portuguese trade routes to Madeira and then South Africa with a short detour to taste Kenya's most famous Pinot Noir. Kenya Pinot Noir Really? The route loops around visiting Bali Thailand and India before heading north to China to visit Shangri-La. Shangri-La Does that even exist? It does and there is wine there. Then it is off to Australia with a detour in Tasmania which is so cool that it is hot. The stars of the Southern Cross and the title of a familiar song guide us to New Zealand Chile and Argentina. We ride a wine train in California and rendezvous with Planet Riesling in Seattle before getting into fast cars for a race across North America collecting more wine as we go. Pause for lunch in Virginia to honor Thomas Jefferson then it's time to jet back to London to tally our wines and see what we have learned. Why these particular places? What are the eighty wines and what do they reveal? And what is the surprise plot twist that guarantees a happy ending for every wine lover? Come with us on a journey of discovery that will inspire inform and entertain anyone who loves travel adventure or wine.
