with the drivers but also is alongside their family driving to the next race in a van piled high with ice chests filled with sandwiches and fried chicken He digs into the sport's rough and rowdy history and shines a light into its nooks and crannies uncovering the forgotten role that women drivers played in creating this most macho of motorsports And then there are the fans There's Red Robinson the self-proclaimed World's Number One Stock Car Racing Fan who collects racing beauty queens the way some people collect stamps And the fans camped out in the infield at Darlington the biggest wildest whoopingest holleringest drinkingest gamblingest carousingest knock down fall out blowout held in the South More than a book about racing this is a close up look at a cultural phenomenon that illuminates America and the South In 1965 Tom Wolfe called racer Junior Johnson the last American hero The World's Number One All Time Great Stock Car Racing Book shows that a decade later there were still plenty of heroes circling the track with no signs of them disappearing anytime soon Do-Good Boy Jerry Bledsoe, 2017-07-05 In 1960 at age 18 future bestselling author Jerry Bledsoe Bitter Blood The Angel Doll told an Army recruiter that he wanted to be an artist This was his lucky day the recruiter informed him The Army had the best art school in the world But after being sworn in Bledsoe was pulled aside by a major and informed that no Army art school existed He was being assigned instead to Information School Although Bledsoe who had flunked high school English for failure to write book reports and term papers had no idea what this unexpected decision entailed it would set the direction for the rest of his life Bledsoe limits this warm deeply personal and often humorous memoir to the turbulent 60s which he began as a psychological warfare writer in the early stages of the Vietnam War His Army experiences led him to become a newspaper reporter and columnist thrusting him into the major stories of the decade and leading him to meet and write about hosts of remarkable and engaging people including a relatively unknown musician named Jimi Hendrix who was opening for the Monkees comedy legend Brother Dave Gardner and civil rights leader Ben Elton Cox From moments of true Catch 22 absurdities in the Army to historic events of the civil rights movement Do Good Boy gives its readers an insider's view as a young author discovers his calling A Gift of Angels Jerry Bledsoe, 2017-09-04 Critics proclaimed Jerry Bledsoe's bestseller The Angel Doll an instant classic and a family treasure It sold more than 110 000 copies in hardcover was excerpted in Good Housekeeping selected by The Literary Guild Doubleday Book Club and Crossings Book Club and was made into a Lifetime movie In The Angel Doll we met Whitey Black who despite his poverty sets out to get an angel doll for his four year old sister because she loves The Littlest Angel story so much Although his sister doesn't live to see her doll we learn of another angel who many years later gives angel dolls to children in terminal hospital wards each Christmas In this deeply moving sequel to The Angel Doll Bledsoe tells the rest of the story and brings the characters full circle to the present day A story of friendship love and giving it is certain to bring tears to the eyes of all who read it even if they never heard of The Angel Doll The Angel Doll Jerry Bledsoe, 2016-11 If even a small part of a child still lives within your heart you can't help but be captivated by this deeply moving novella based on bestselling author Jerry Bledsoe's childhood memories Set in a
