Fascinating Rhythm David Yaffe, 2009-02-09 How have American writers written about jazz and how has jazz influenced American literature In Fascinating Rhythm David Yaffe explores the relationship and interplay between jazz and literature looking at jazz musicians and the themes literature has garnered from them by appropriating the style tones and innovations of jazz and demonstrating that the poetics of jazz has both been assimilated into and deeply affected the development of twentieth century American literature Yaffe explores how Jewish novelists such as Norman Mailer J D Salinger and Philip Roth engaged issues of racial ethnic and American authenticity by way of jazz how Ralph Ellison's descriptions of Louis Armstrong led to a neoconservative movement in contemporary jazz how poets such as Wallace Stevens Hart Crane Langston Hughes and Frank O'Hara were variously inspired by the music and how memoirs by Billie Holiday Charles Mingus and Miles Davis both reinforced and redeemed the red light origins of jazz The book confronts the current jazz discourse and shows how poets and novelists can be placed in it often with problematic results Fascinating Rhythm stops to listen for the music demonstrating how jazz continues to speak for the American writer

Flashback Through the Heart Angela M. Salas, 2004 In doing so the author seeks to convince readers that Komunyakaa has never been solely interested in dealing with the complexities of race in his work although he does so to stunning effect in such works as Dien Cai Dau a volume invoking the horrors of the war in Vietnam Jacket

Dismantling Glory Lorrie Goldensohn, 2006-04-18 Dismantling Glory presents the most personal and powerful words ever written about the horrors of battle by the very soldiers who put their lives on the line Focusing on American and English poetry from World War I World War II and the Vietnam War Lorrie

Goldensohn a poet and pacifist affirms that by and large twentieth century war poetry is fundamentally antiwar She examines the changing nature of the war lyric and takes on the literary thinking of two countries separated by their common language World War I poets such as Wilfred Owen emphasized the role of soldier as victim By World War II however English and American poets influenced by the leftist politics of W H Auden tended to indict the whole of society not just its leaders for militarism During the Vietnam War soldier poets accepted themselves as both victims and perpetrators of war s misdeeds writing a nontraditional more personally candid war poetry The book not only discusses the poetry of trench warfare but also shows how the lives of civilians women and children in particular entered a global war poetry dominated by air power invasion and occupation Goldensohn argues that World War II blurred the boundaries between battleground and home front thus bringing women and civilians into war discourse as never before She discusses the interplay of fascination and disapproval in the texts of twentieth century war and notes the way in which homage to war hero and victim contends with revulsion at war s horror and waste In addition to placing the war lyric in literary and historical context the book discusses in detail individual poets such as Wilfred Owen W H Auden Keith Douglas Randall Jarrell and a group of poets from the Vietnam War including W D Ehrhart Bruce Weigl Yusef Komunyakaa David Huddle and Doug Anderson Dismantling Glory is an original and compelling look at the way twentieth century war poetry posited new relations between masculinity and war changed and complicated the representation of war and expanded the scope of antiwar thinking
