Students Who Don't Look like You provides crucial strategies to assist educators in addressing the needs of diverse learners and closing the achievement gap. This book fires up educators by speaking from the soul to reach the heart from the research to engage the mind and from the skillful hand to build the necessary expertise. Peggy Dickerson, Professional Service Provider, Region XIII Texas Education Service Center, Austin, TX. The vignettes and classroom situations help the reader understand how race plays out in our society and in our classrooms. Dr. Davis takes on a very volatile topic and is able to engage the reader without offending. The examples, vignettes, cases, and stories will hook the readers just as they did me. Once I began reading the book, I could not put it down. Ava Maria Whittemore, Minority Achievement Coordinator, Frederick County Public Schools, MD.

Once Upon a Time in a Different World Neal A. Lester, 2010-06-21. This book offers a history and analysis of African American children's literature from its beginnings to the present. Chapters explore issues surrounding race and representation from the race and gender politics of African American hair to the absence of the N word in children's books.

Creating Safe, Equitable, Engaging Schools David Osher, Deborah Moroney, Sandra Williamson, 2025-10-15. Creating Safe, Equitable, Engaging Schools brings together the collective wisdom of more than thirty experts from a variety of fields to show how school leaders can create communities that support the social, emotional, and academic needs of all students. It offers an essential guide for making sense of the myriad evidence-based frameworks, resources, and tools available to create a continuous improvement system. Chapters illustrate how leaders can leverage the power of school-based teams to assess the needs of students in their school and select appropriate interventions across a wide variety of domains, including social and emotional learning, trauma, restorative practices, cultural responsiveness, and student and family engagement. Filled with recommendations gleaned from research and ongoing work in every US state and territory, Creating Safe, Equitable, Engaging Schools is a critical resource for understanding and adopting evidence-based practices and making programmatic decisions to ensure the ideal conditions for learning, growth, and development. MultiCultural Review, 2004. Bluford Ingram Book Group.

The Bully Paul Langan, 2002. After Darrell Mercer and his mother move from Philadelphia to California in the middle of the school year, the ninth grader quickly becomes a target for the freshman class bully Tyray Hobbs.
