Fresh Vision for the Muslim World Mike Kuhn, 2012-01-05 Drawing on his two decades in the Middle East Mike Kuhn calls Christians to approach Muslims not by the broad road of fear and self preservation but by the narrow road of empathy and deep listening

Global Catastrophes and Trends Vaclav Smil, 2012-09-14 A wide ranging interdisciplinary look at global changes that may occur over the next fifty years whether sudden and cataclysmic world changing events or gradually unfolding trends Fundamental change occurs most often in one of two ways as a fatal discontinuity a sudden catastrophic event that is potentially world changing or as a persistent gradual trend Global catastrophes include volcanic eruptions viral pandemics wars and large scale terrorist attacks trends are demographic environmental economic and political shifts that unfold over time In this provocative book scientist Vaclav Smil takes a wide ranging interdisciplinary look at the catastrophes and trends the next fifty years may bring Smil first looks at rare but cataclysmic events both natural and human produced then at trends of global importance including the transition from fossil fuels to other energy sources and growing economic and social inequality He also considers environmental change in some ways an amalgam of sudden discontinuities and gradual change and assesses the often misunderstood complexities of global warming Global Catastrophes and Trends does not come down on the side of either doom and gloom scenarios or techno euphoria Instead Smil argues that understanding change will help us reverse negative trends and minimize the risk of catastrophe

The Ultimate Tragedy Abid Ullah Jan, Rory Winter, 2006 Introduction to Geography: Where in the world do Muslims Live? Susan Douglass, 1995-01-01 This supplementary unit is an introduction to the geography of regions where Muslims live as majorities and a description of the circumstances in which Muslims live as minorities The focus is more regional than national so as to overstep the arbitrary modern borders that divide Muslim populations among numerous countries The unit is designed to complement typical geography surveys offered in elementary social studies curricula It is designed for grade four but may be used for grades five and six if the curriculum so requires Study of this unit may be undertaken after the students have received an introduction to basic geography and map skills It is probably best undertaken during the second half of the fourth grade year but since important geography concepts and skills are both introduced and reviewed here the teacher may be confident to proceed earlier The structure of the unit is unique in that the student text is in the form of a play script whose characters a teacher and her students model a cooperative learning experience as they study regions of the world where Muslims live The main objectives of this unit are to provide students with an overview of the places where Muslims live as majority and minority communities and to investigate selected aspects of geographic and cultural diversity within the context of Islamic unity The unit consists of an eight lesson student text with teaching suggestions and enrichment activities Comprehension questions map skills and worksheets accompany the text for concept reinforcement and skill building While the unit is designed for flexibility it is recommended that the students be exposed to the entire student text If time does not allow extensive study of the unit materials the teacher may select only basic material from the teaching suggestions rather than covering these with depth and enrichment A New Beginning for Humankind R. B.

Herath, 2012-09 The world is reaching a nuclear tipping point and a catastrophe looms Even the United Nations can't seem to do anything about the threat Given the circumstances people everywhere need to unite to prevent a disaster In this new study peace activist R B Herath explains what's at stake and what everyday people can do to solve the problem Here are some of the questions Herath seeks to answer What are the major violent conflicts in the world today Is there any guarantee that none of the ongoing violent conflicts will deteriorate into a worldwide fiasco If there is no such guarantee what needs to be done to prevent such an eventuality Is there anything more to be done to ensure lasting peace on the planet By taking steps to prevent tension from building up to a tipping point and by building a stronger system of checks and balances it's possible to resolve conflicts at all levels through peaceful means Join Herath as he seeks to change habits that promote war to habits that promote peace in the face of the present troubled state of the world Mahathir's Islam Sven

Schottmann, 2018-09-30 Mahathir Mohamad's legacy as Malaysia's longest serving prime minister 1981-2003 is deeply controversial His engagement with Islam the religion of just over half Malaysia's population has often been dismissed as partisan maneuvering Yet his willingness to countenance a more prominent place for Islam in government and society is what distinguished him from other modernist politicians and his instinct to set Malaysian politics against the backdrop of the wider Muslim world was politically astute Author Sven Schottmann argues that Mahathir's transformative effect on Malaysia can only be fully appreciated if we also take him seriously as one of the postcolonial Muslim world's most significant political thought leaders Schottmann sees Mahathir's representations of Islam as a relatively coherent discourse that can legitimately be described as Mahathir's Islam This discourse contains Mahathir's assessment of the economic political and sociocultural problems facing the contemporary Muslim world and the range of solutions and corrective measures that he proposed Muslims should adopt His ideas are fraught with flaws and contradictions On the one hand he emphasized the individualistic egalitarian pluralistic democratic and dynamic qualities of Islam On the other his government enacted legislation and acquiesced in the activities of religious bodies that curtailed religious freedoms of both Muslims and non-Muslims His ideas contributed to Malaysia's worsening state of interethnic relations yet his insistence that every Muslim had the right to speak for Islam may have paradoxically prepared the ground for a future democratization of Malaysian politics Mahathir's Islam is based on rigorous analysis of Mahathir's speeches interviews and writings which the author is able to link to parallel processes elsewhere in the Muslim world Indonesia the Middle East Pakistan Turkey and diaspora communities in the West Mahathir's Islamic discourse Schottmann suggests must be read against the wider late twentieth century resurgence of religion in general and the post-1970s Islamic revival in particular Balanced in approach and engagingly written this book will be of interest to scholars and students of political science religious studies and others interested in Malaysia Southeast Asia or Mahathir himself The Contemporary Islamic Governed State Joseph J.
