Howards End (with Audio & Text) E. M. Forster, 2021-08-31 Howards End is a novel by E M Forster first published in 1910 about social conventions codes of conduct and relationships in turn of the century England Howards End is considered by many to be Forster s masterpiece Howards End tackles social conventions of the Edwardian era The story focuses on three families in England at the beginning of the 20th century the Wilcoxes rich capitalists with a fortune made in the colonies the half German Schlegel siblings Margaret Helen and Tibby whose cultural pursuits have much in common with the Bloomsbury Group and the Basts an impoverished young couple from a lower class background The idealistic intelligent Schlegel sisters seek to help the struggling Basts and to rid the Wilcoxes of some of their deep seated social and economic prejudices Howards End Edward Morgan Forster, 1992 In Howards End Forster voiced many of his apprehensions about the future and the novel has become more relevant than ever as a statement of humane civilised values while its subtle characterisation its blend of irony and lyricism its humour and its wealth of unobtrusive symbols make it one of the great English novels The story of two sisters Margaret and Helen Schlegel and their different paths in life was hailed by the critics as Forster s greatest work when it was first published in 1910 The word Forsterian is already demanded wrote the Saturday Review and the Daily Telegraph said all will feel with us that it is a book quite out of the common by a writer who is one of our assets and likely to become one of our glories Howards End Illustrated E M Forster, 2021-02-15 The Schlegels had briefly met and befriended the Wilcoxes when both families were touring Germany Helen the younger Schlegel daughter visits the Wilcoxes at their country house Howards End She is attracted to the younger Wilcox son Paul and they become engaged in haste but soon regret their decision breaking off the engagement by mutual consent Not long after the Schlegel sisters attend a concert featuring a performance of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony Helen is so entranced by the images the music creates in her mind that she leaves inadvertently taking an umbrella that belongs to Leonard Bast Margaret gives Leonard her card and invites him to come with her after the concert to retrieve the umbrella Once there Leonard is embarrassed by the shabby quality of his umbrella and quickly departs Later that year the Wilcoxes move to London taking an apartment close to the Schlegels house Margaret befriends the Wilcox matriarch Ruth Howards End is Ruth's most prized possession she feels a strong connection to the old house which is not shared by her husband and children Ruth becomes quite ill and perceiving Margaret as a kindred spirit on her deathbed writes a note leaving Howards End to Margaret The note causes great consternation to the widowed Henry Wilcox He and his children burn it without telling Margaret about her inheritance Leonard Bast is living with but not married to Jacky a vulnerable fallen woman for whom he feels responsible He again encounters the Schlegels after Jacky finds Margaret's card and shows up at the Schlegels in search of her husband thoroughly mystifying Helen The previous evening instead of coming home after work Leonard had walked all night from the city out through the country an action Helen looks on as adventurous Later in the day after Leonard has come and explained the situation the Schlegels meet Henry Wilcox as they are walking and discussing how they could best help the impoverished Basts On hearing the name of the insurance company where Leonard works Henry recommends that he quit his job as the company is bound to smash The Schlegels share this information with Leonard The friendship between Henry and Margaret blossoms into romance and Henry proposes to Margaret who accepts Henry's children do not look upon the engagement with a friendly eye But the only real opposition comes from older son Charles and his wife Dolly who fear that Margaret endangers their inheritance of Howards End Sometime later Helen shows up at the wedding of Evie Wilcox with Leonard Bast and Jacky now married but desperately poor Leonard had lost the job he took after leaving his previous employer which did not go out of business but refused to take him back Henry recognizes Jacky as his former mistress and thinks that the Schlegels and Basts have concocted a plot to expose him Ten years previously when on business in Cyprus he seduced Jacky and then carelessly abandoned her Margaret is dreadfully disturbed by this but Henry thinks such are the ways of the world Realizing that the affair had betrayed Ruth but not her Margaret wishes to save the relationship and forgives him
