MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nelsa Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I will do everything I can to get into a good university where I can go to college.

Literacy Autobiographies from the Global South Shizhou Yang,2022-12-30

Drawing on autoethnographic research on literacy autobiographies from a Chinese EFL writing context this book provides unique insights into literacy voice translingualism and critical pedagogy from a Global South perspective The book presents literacy autobiographies as a cultural tool for analyzing and refashioning learners and teachers sense of self in ever expanding dialogical spaces In addition to highlighting teachers own stories around autoethnographies and translanguaging it showcases literacy autobiographies from Chinese students themselves The book theorizes the Global South as an ontological positioning that challenges colonial mindsets and practices concerning literacy language learning and narratives It argues that literacy autobiographies from a Global South perspective can be reimagined as critical pedagogy for EFL writing teaching and learning as well as teacher development Validating and expanding student voices by presenting these literacy autobiographies this book will be of great interest to researchers and students in the fields of TESOL applied linguistics English language teaching second language writing and literacy studies
