Books and Bookmen, 1984 London Magazine John Lehmann, Alan Ross, Sebastian Barker, 1966 British Books, 1966 A History of Irish Autobiography Liam Harte, 2018-03-01 A History of Irish Autobiography is the first ever critical survey of autobiographical self representation in Ireland from its recoverable beginnings to the twenty first century The book draws on a wealth of original scholarship by leading experts to provide an authoritative examination of autobiographical writing in the English and Irish languages Beginning with a comprehensive overview of autobiography theory and criticism in Ireland the History guides the reader through seventeen centuries of Irish achievement in autobiography a category that incorporates diverse literary forms from religious tracts and travelogues to letters diaries and online journals This ambitious book is rich in insight Chapters are structured around key subgenres themes texts and practitioners each featuring a guide to recommended further reading The volume s extensive coverage is complemented by a detailed chronology of Irish autobiography from the fifth century to the contemporary era the first of its kind to be published

Modern Irish Autobiography L. Harte, 2007-04-12 Modern Irish Autobiography provides the first comprehensive critical analysis of the Irish autobiographical tradition from the early nineteenth century to the present day This pioneering collection offers readers a stimulating and provocative introduction to the principal themes modes and narrative strategies of Irish autobiographers

Books Magazine, 1991 A Companion to Literary Biography Richard Bradford, 2018-09-18 An authoritative review of literary biography, covering the seventeenth century to the twentieth century A Companion to Literary Biography offers a comprehensive account of literary biography spanning the history of the genre across three centuries The editor an esteemed literary biographer and noted expert in the field has encouraged contributors to explore the theoretical and methodological questions raised by the writing of biographies of writers The text examines how biographers have dealt with the lives of classic authors from Chaucer to contemporary figures such as Kingsley Amis The Companion brings a new perspective on how literary biography enables the reader to deal with the relationship between the writer and their work Literary biography is the most popular form of writing about writing yet it has been largely neglected in the academic community This volume bridges the gap between literary biography as a popular genre and its relevance for the academic study of literature This important work Allows the author of a biography to be treated as part of the process of interpretation and investigates biographical reading as an important aspect of criticism Examines the birth of literary biography at the close of the seventeenth century and considers its expansion through the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries Addresses the status and writing of literary biography from numerous perspectives and with regard to various sources methodologies and theories Reviews the ways in which literary biography has played a role in our perception of writers in the mainstream of the English canon from Chaucer to the present day Written for students at the undergraduate level through postgraduate and doctoral levels as well as academics A Companion to Literary Biography illustrates and accounts for the importance of the literary biography as a vital element of criticism and as an index to our perception of literary history Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1983 British Paperbacks in Print ,1985 The Edward G. Robinson Encyclopedia Robert Beck,2015-09-16 Edward G Robinson a 1930s cinema icon had an acting career that spanned more than 60 years After a brush with silent films he rose to true celebrity status in sound feature films and went on to take part in radio and television performances then back to Broadway and on the road in live theatre This work documents Robinson s every known public performance or appearance listing co workers source material background and critical commentary The entries include feature films documentaries short subjects cartoons television and radio productions live theatre presentations narrations pageants and recordings Also included are entries relating to his life and career ranging from his wives to his art collection
