Caitlin Corning, 2015-11-01 World History A Short Visual Introduction is the ideal path to understanding the historical events that influence Christian history. Caitlin Corning's introduction covers the most important people, places, and events with precision and clarity. The major scenes are creatively illustrated by artist Joseph Novak, whose crisp modern style brings history to life. The result is an articulate, no-nonsense approach that guides readers through the events of world history from prehistory to the present day that have shaped Christianity in the past and affect it today. World History is part of the Christianity and the Liberal Arts series, which recognizes that many Christians are eager to deepen their understanding of the liberal arts yet have limited time to do so. By reviewing key fields: philosophy, history, literature, world religions, and the arts, in a concise, creative way, Christianity and the Liberal Arts books will inspire new insights for a new generation of Christian life and ministry.

Plagues in World History John Aberth, 2011-01-16 Plagues in World History provides a concise comparative world history of catastrophic infectious diseases including plague, smallpox, tuberculosis, cholera, influenza, and AIDS. Geographically, these diseases have spread across the entire globe; temporally, they stretch from the sixth century to the present. John Aberth considers not only the varied impact that disease has had upon human history but also the many ways in which people have been able to influence diseases simply through their cultural attitudes toward them. The author argues that the ability of humans to alter disease even without the modern wonders of antibiotic drugs and other medical treatments is an even more crucial lesson to learn now that AIDS, swine flu, multidrug-resistant tuberculosis, and other seemingly incurable illnesses have raged worldwide. Aberth's comparative analysis of how different societies have responded in the past to disease illuminates what cultural approaches have been and may continue to be most effective in combating the plagues of today.

European Slave Trading in the Indian Ocean, 1500-1850 Richard B. Allen, 2015-01-01 Between 1500 and 1850 European traders shipped hundreds of thousands of African, Indian, Malagasy, and Southeast Asian slaves to ports throughout the Indian Ocean world. The activities of the British, Dutch, French, and Portuguese traders who operated in the Indian Ocean demonstrate that European slave trading was not confined largely to the Atlantic but must now be viewed as a truly global phenomenon. European slave trading and abolitionism in the Indian Ocean also led to the development of an increasingly integrated movement of slave, convict, and indentured labor during the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries, the consequences of which resonated well into the twentieth century. Richard B. Allen's magisterial work dramatically expands our understanding of the movement of free and forced labor around the world Drawing upon extensive archival research and a thorough command of published scholarship Allen challenges the modern tendency to view the Indian and Atlantic oceans as self contained units of historical analysis and the attendant failure to understand the ways in which the Indian Ocean and Atlantic worlds have interacted with one another In so doing he offers tantalizing new insights into the origins and dynamics of global labor migration in the modern world

South Asian Migrations in Global History Neilesh Bose,2020-12-10 This collection explores how South Asian migrations in modern history have shaped key aspects of globalization since the 1830s Including original research from colonial India Fiji Mexico South Africa North America and the Middle East the essays explore indentured labour and its legacies law as a site of regulation and historical biography Including recent scholarship on the legacy of issues such as consent sovereignty and skilled unskilled labour distinctions from the history of indentured labour migrations this volume brings together a range of historical changes that can only be understood by studying South Asian migrants within a globalized world system Centering south Asian migrations as a site of analysis in global history the contributors offer a lens into the ongoing regulation of labourers after the abolition of slavery that intersect with histories in the Global North and Global South The use of historical biography showcases experiences from below and showcases a world history outside empire and nation

Seventh-Day Adventism in Africa Gabriel Masfa,2023-06-16 This book examines the complex history of Adventism in Africa situating it within the context of African traditions and culture From a small movement with origins in the United States the Seventh day Adventist Church has grown worldwide It is one of several Christian denominations present in Africa and yet the history of Seventh day Adventism in the global South has been largely unexplored by scholars The book highlights the discrepancies between western traditions exhibited in the missionary enterprise and African religious systems It also explores the intricate relation between colonialism and African Adventism in line with established studies in African Christianity It will be of interest to scholars of religion and theology particularly church history and mission studies as well as African studies
