What Is a Museum? The United States National Committee of the International Council of Museums, 2022-05-23 What makes a museum a museum in the 21st century This is a transformative moment in the history of museums Traditionally the museums have been defined by the functions of collecting preserving documenting researching exhibiting and in other ways communicating and interpreting evidence of human culture and history for the benefit of everyone But what is the future of museums in a fast changing world of economic uncertainty social disruption health challenges and climate change Can museums reflect the accountability and transparency under which they are expected to acquire and use their material financial social and intellectual resources What Is a Museum Perspectives from National and International Museum Leaders shares perspectives from dedicated professionals investigating how museums can meet their ethical political social cultural and environmental responsibilities in the years to come In a series of essays well known leaders in the museum sector and related fields contribute to our understanding of the current and future challenges facing museums around the world ICOM US Co Chair and Secretary of the Smithsonian Lonnie G Bunch III summarizes the issues and provides guidance for the future of museums Questions explored include What lessons have we learned from the needs of the communities we claim to serve and how can we better adapt to shift our priorities in a faster and more efficient way How can museums not only chronicle the past but depict the present and become touchstones for the future of their communities In a world aimed towards political correctness how do we address collections resulting from power and colonization This book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in why museums matter today what their future holds and how to change them W. E. B. Du Bois, Ethiopianism, and Black Internationalism Ras Wayne A. Rose, 2023-11-15 Scholarship on Black internationalism has experienced a revival Whilst this scholarship has increasingly turned towards examining Du Bois s thoughts on the color line in a global rather than national context none do so by centering his Ethiopian centered perspective This book provides an examination of Du Bois s efforts to link African Americans Afro Caribbean and the Pan African project to Ethiopia as a response to the emerging question of Black historical identity For Du Bois Ethiopia Ethiopian history and its monarchical leadership were essential to resolving the global problem of the color line He believed that Africans in the Diaspora especially in the United States and Africans across Ethiopia should build reciprocal relations with Ethiopia for the benefit of the Black Race and their mutual development Du Bois also made multiple attempts to engage and establish relations with Ethiopia and worked through official and unofficial channels to develop those relations By revisiting and reevaluating Du Bois s engagement strategies with Ethiopia the book suggests ways in which his evolving Pan Africanism might be understood differently to how it has been deployed in scholarship on Black internationalism The book provides new perspectives on Du Bois s famous invocation of the global color line by uncovering his conceptual and practical reasons for specifically connecting Ethiopia to African Americans and the issues of global social and economic justice

The Second Emancipation Howard W. French, 2025-08-26 Named one of the Most Anticipated Books of 2025 by Foreign Policy Howard French s The Second Emancipation stands the second half of the last century on its geopolitical head David Levering Lewis winner of the Pulitzer Prize From the acclaimed author of Born in Blackness comes an extraordinary account of Africa s liberation from colonial oppression a work that fundamentally reshapes our understanding of modern history A work of epic dimension that recasts the liberation of twentieth century Africa through the lens of revolutionary leader Kwame Nkrumah The Second Emancipation the second work in a trilogy from best selling author Howard W French about Africa s pivotal role in shaping world history underscores Adam Hochschild s contention that French is a modern day Copernicus The title referring to a brief period beginning in 1957 when dozens of African colonies gained their freedom positions this liberation at the center of a movement of global Blackness with one charismatic leader Kwame Nkrumah 1909 1972 at its head That so few people today know about Nkrumah is an omission that French demonstrates is typical of our deliberate neglect of Africa s enormous role in the birth of the modern world Determined to re create Nkrumah s life as an epic twentieth century story The Second Emancipation begins with his impoverished unheralded birth in the far western region of Ghana s Gold Coast But blessed with a deep curiosity a young Nkrumah pursued an overseas education in the United States Nowhere is French s consummate style more vivid than in Nkrumah s early years in Depression era America especially in his mesmerizing portrait of a culturally effervescent Harlem that Nkrumah encountered in 1935 before heading to college During his student years in Pennsylvania and later as an activist in London Nkrumah became steeped in a renowned international Black intellectual milieu including Du Bois Garvey Fanon Padmore and C L R James who called him one of the greatest political leaders of our century and formed an ideology that readied him for an extraordinarily swift and peaceful rise to power upon his return to Ghana in 1947 Four years later in a political landslide he engineered while imprisoned Nkrumah stunned Britain by winning the first general election under universal franchise in Africa becoming Ghana's first independent prime minister in 1957. As leader of a sovereign nation Nkrumah wielded his influence to promote the liberation of the entire continent pushing unity as the only pathway to recover from the damages of enslavement and subjugation. By the time national military and police forces aided by the CIA overthrew him in 1966 Nkrumah's radical belief in pan African liberation had both galvanized dozens of nascent African states and fired a global agenda of Black power. In its dramatic recasting of the American civil rights story and in its tragic depiction of a continent that once exuded all the promise of a newly won freedom The Second Emancipation becomes a generational work that positions Africa at the forefront of modern day history. Queen Mother Ashley D.

Farmer, 2025-11-04 From an award winning historian of Black radical politics comes the definitive biography of Audley Moore mother of modern Black Nationalism and trailblazer in the fight for reparations. Queen Mother is a monumental achievement a rendering worthy of the great Audley Moore herself. Jelani Cobb Dean of the Columbia School of Journalism. In the world of Black radical politics the name Audley Moore commands unquestioned respect. Across the nine decades of her life Queen Mother Moore distinguished herself as a leading progenitor of Black Nationalism the founder of the modern reparations movement and from her Philadelphia and Harlem homes a mentor to some of America's most influential Black activists. And yet she is far less remembered than many of her peers and protégés Marcus Garvey Malcolm X and Muhammad Ahmad to name just a few and the ephemera of her life are either lost or plundered. In Queen Mother celebrated writer and historian Ashley D. Farmer restores Moore's faded portrait delivering the first ever definitive account of her life and enduring legacy. Deeply researched and richly detailed Queen Mother is more than just the biography of an American icon. It's a narrative history of 20th century Black radicalism told through the lens of the woman whose grit and determination sustained the movement. African Pentecostalism and World Christianity Nimi Wariboko, Adeshina Afolayan, 2020-09-15

In the last fifty years the history of World Christianity has been disproportionally shaped if not defined by African Pentecostalism. The objective of this volume is to investigate and interrogate the critical junctures at which World Christianity invigorates and is invigorated by African Pentecostalism. The essays of the thinkers gathered here examine the general relationships between World Christianity and Africa and the specific interplays between World Christianity and African Pentecostalism. Scholars from multiple disciplines continents and countries evaluate how the theological scholarship and missional works of eminent African intellectual Johnson Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu have contributed to the scholarly understanding of how Global Christianity has been mediated by its reception in Africa. They also investigate how African Pentecostalism has been shaped by its contact with the diverse forms of Christianity in Africa and the rest of the world.
