After Criticism New Responses To Art And Performance:

After Criticism Gavin Butt, 2005 Annotation It has recently become apparent that criticism is in trouble Either commodification is deemed to have killed it off or it has become institutionally routine This book explores contemporary approaches that have sought to renew criticism's energies in the wake of a theatrical turn in recent visual arts practice and the emergence of a performative arts writing over the past decade or so Issues addressed include the performing of art's histories the consequences for criticism of embracing boredom distraction and other queer forms of inattention and the importance of exploring writerly process in responding to aesthetic experience Bringing together newly commissioned work from the fields of art history performance studies and visual culture with the writings of contemporary artists After Criticism provides a set of experimental essays that demonstrate how the critical might live on as a vital and efficacious force within contemporary culture

The State of Art Criticism James Elkins, Michael Newman, 2007-11-13 The State of Art Criticism presents an international conversation among art historians and critics that considers the relation between criticism and art history

Sensuous Learning for Practical Judgment in Professional Practice Elena P. Antonacopoulou, Steven S. Taylor, 2019-02-15 The second volume of this ground breaking book critically examines the effect of arts based methods in combination as arts based interventions in improving professional practice from deinstitutionalization to the counteraction of destructive leadership Taking a human centred approach it delivers an insightful account of what these approaches do differently to achieve a new mode of learning sensuous learning that cultivates professional judgment to serve the common good simultaneously supporting personal and collective growth The chapters present cutting edge examples of multiple ways arts based interventions underpin learning arenas for expanding leadership and improving professional practice The reflexivity cultivated through these learning arenas has the unique potential to improve professional practice not merely by enhancing competence but also by cultivating character and conscience which is central in making judgments that serve the common good These benefits are relevant for professional practitioners sharpening the skills and behaviours needed in organisations including creativity diversity imagination and improvisation

Encounters Beyond the Gallery Renate Dohmen, 2016-08-24 Encounters Beyond the Gallery challenges the terms of their exclusion looking to relational art Deleuze Guattarean aesthetics and notions of perception as well as anthropological theory for ways to create connections between seemingly disparate worlds Embracing a unique and experimental format the book imagines encounters between the art works and art worlds of Rirkrit Tiravanija Tamil women the Shipibo Conibo of Eastern Peru and a fictional female contemporary artist named Rikki T in order to rethink normative aesthetic and cultural categories Its method reflects the message of the book and embraces a plurality of voices and perspectives to steer critical attention towards the complexity of artistic life beyond the gallery

Participatory Theatre and the Urban Everyday in South Africa Alexandra Halligey, 2019-12-06 This book explores theatre and performance as participatory research practices for exploring the everyday of the city Taking an inner city suburb of Johannesburg South Africa as its central case study the book considers how theatre and performance might be both useful practical tools in considering the everyday city as well as conceptual lenses for understanding it The author establishes an understanding of space as ever evolving and formed through the ongoing relationship between things human and non human and considers how theatre and performance offer useful paradigms for learning about and working with city spaces As ephemeral embodied material artistic practices theatre and performance mirror the nature of everyday life The book discusses theatre and performance games and placemaking processes as offering valuable ways of discovering daily acts of place making and providing insights that more conventional research methods may not allow Yet the book also considers how seeing daily city life as a kind of performance a kind of theatre in its own right helps to further understandings of city spaces as ever evolving through complex webs of relationships This book will be of interest to academics academic practitioners and post graduate students in the fields of theatre and performance studies urban studies and cultural geography

Aural/Oral Dramaturgies Duška Radosavljević,2022-10-26

Aural Oral Dramaturgies Theatre in the Digital Age focuses on the aural turn in contemporary theatre making examining a number of seemingly disparate trends that foreground speech and sound post verbatim theatre amplified storytelling works using microphones and headphones and gig theatre that incorporates live music performance Its main argument is that the dramaturgical underpinnings of these works contribute to an understanding of theatre as an extra literary activity greater than the centrality of the script that traditionally dominated many historical discussions This quality is usually expressed in terms of the corporeality in dance and physical theatre but the aural oral turn gives an alternative viewpoint on the interplay between text and performance The book s case studies draw on the ways in which a range of theatre companies engage with the dramaturgy of speech and sound in their work It is further accompanied by a specially curated collection of digital resources including interviews conversations and presentations from artists and academics This is a key text for scholars students and practitioners of contemporary performance and anyone working with dramaturgies of orality and aurality in today s performance environment
