Reform, Representation and Theology in Nicholas of Cusa and His Age H. Lawrence Bond,Gerald

Christianson,2023-03-31 While most works on Nicholas of Cusa concentrate either on his early career as author of the monumental Catholic Concordance or on his later career as writer of remarkable philosophical theological works such as On Learned Ignorance and The Vision of God the essays included here attempt to address the whole Cusanus sharing common contexts issues and themes Following chapters on the legacy of conciliarism and ecumenicity the story begins with the Council of Basel for which Cusanus wrote The Catholic Concordance but from which he broke away raising issues of private conscience as well as the balance between papal authority and representative councils in the pursuit of reform The story then turns to the matrix between Constantinople and a new council in Ferrara when Cusanus received a ship board gift from the Father of Lights and began to write his great philosophical theological treatises When taken together the essays in this book not only form a cohesive whole they also enlighten aspects often left in the shade such as the enigmatic aspects of Cusanus participation in the council and his mystical theology that reveals a man of faith in search of certainty beyond the well trod paths of philosophical reflection

A User's Guide to Campaign Finance Reform Gerald C. Lubenow,2001 Is campaign finance reform dead or alive Can Congress really fix the problems that American voters perceive in their electoral system This book assumes that voters are the end users of campaign finance reform and it questions whether average citizens really know what they are asking for or what they may get when they demand change In this book ten prominent political scientists and commentators challenge the conventional wisdom about the role of money in campaigns and elections They look at the level of campaign spending in recent times the judicial perspective on spending as a First Amendment right the current diversity of donors the media spin on the subject and the act of contributing as a form of political participation The inimitable Norm Ornstein wraps it all up with a model reform proposal that is at once more moderate than McCain Feingold and yet
