Harrison, 2015-08-16 Gay never recorded an album never won a Juno His music existed in the moment appreciated by the few who were lucky enough to be in the right place at the right time For the rest of us those late night jam sessions in a shack in an alley on the bad side of Edmonton never happened We never got to hear him play the Cole Porter songs he loved with Carlos Montoya never got to watch the ashes build dangerously on the end of his menthol cigarette And when Frank Gay died only the guitar players gently wept Shelley Youngblut Until his death in 1982 Edmonton luthier and guitarist Frank Gay built guitars for several famous musicians including country stars Johnny Cash Don Gibson Webb Pierce and Hank Snow He captivated listeners with his singular talent on guitar and other instruments and was well known within the music industry Trevor Harrison's detective work uncovers the story of this private charming and bohemian man doing a tremendous service to Canadian culture and music history Harrison pieces together Frank Gay's life through interviews with people who knew him and saw him play Very few recordings of him playing exist and the sparse accounts of Gay's life and work raise more questions than they answer Musicians and instrument makers as well as those interested in Canadian music or Edmonton's colourful past will be fascinated by this biography of western Canadian luthier musician and guitar virtuoso Frank Gay

Aesthetic Theory Theodor W. Adorno, Gretel Adorno, Rolf Tiedemann, 1997 Theodor Adorno 1903-69 was undoubtedly the foremost thinker of the Frankfurt School the influential group of German thinkers that fled to the US in the 1930s including such thinkers as Herbert Marcuse and Max Horkheimer His work has proved enormously influential in sociology philosophy and cultural theory Aesthetic Theory is Adorno's posthumous magnum opus and the culmination of a lifetime's investigation Analysing the sublime the ugly and the beautiful Adorno shows how such concepts frame and distil human experience and that it is human experience that ultimately underlies aesthetics In Adorno's formulation art is the sedimented history of human misery Edited by Gretel Adorno and Rolf Tiedeman Translated by Robert Hullot Kentor

Darwin and Theories of Aesthetics and Cultural History Barbara Larson, Sabine Flach, 2013-01-01 Darwin and Theories of Aesthetics and Cultural History is a significant contribution to the fields of theory Darwin studies and cultural history This collection of eight essays is the first volume to address from the point of view of art and literary historians Darwin's intersections with aesthetic theories and cultural histories from the eighteenth century to the present day Among the philosophers of art influenced by Darwinian evolution and considered in this collection are Alois Riegl Ruskin and Aby Warburg This stimulating collection ranges in content from essays on the influence of eighteenth century aesthetic theory on Darwin and nineteenth century debates circulating around beauty to the study of evolutionary models in contemporary art

Aesthetic Theory Across the Disciplines Max Ryyänen, Zoltán Somhegyi, 2023-11-13 What is aesthetics How is it related to other disciplines The chapters of this book examine the history theoretical conditions and connection points between aesthetics and other disciplines At the same time the authors are also interested in practical clashes of methodology and agenda especially when it is not merely about the securing of the position of one or the other discipline but is used in a dialogical manner as the form of understanding better the nature of both as well as the benefits of their collaboration The authors work on the border of aesthetics and at least one other academic field Through their regular scholarly activities the contributors constantly benefit from cross and interdisciplinary practice and this makes them ideal interpreters of these methodological questions Contributors include Mami Aota Karl Axelsson Paul Duncum Lisa Giombini Oiva Kuisma Jacob Lund Tyrus Miller Max Ryyänen Mateusz Salwa Zoltán Somhegyi Wendy Steiner and Joseph Tanke

Globalization, Oral Performance, and African Traditional Poetry Abdul-Rasheed Na'Allah, 2018-03-15 This book discusses globalization trends and influences on traditional African oral literary performance and the direction that Ilorin oral art is forced to take by the changes of the twenty first century electronic age It seeks a new definition of contemporary African bourgeois in terms of its global reach imitation of foreign forms and collaboration with the owners of the primary agencies Additionally it makes a case that African global lords or new bourgeoisie who are largely products of the new global capital and multinational corporations socio political and cultural influences fashion their tastes after western cultures as portrayed in the digital realm Aesthetic Theory Theodor W. Adorno Adorno,2020-06-09 Perhaps the most important aesthetics of the twentieth century appears here newly translated in English that is for the first time faithful to the intricately demanding language of the original German The culmination of a lifetime of aesthetic investigation Aesthetic Theory is Adorno s major work a defense of modernism that is paradoxical in its defense of illusion In it Adorno takes up the problem of art in a day when it goes without saying that nothing concerning art goes without saying In the course of his discussion Adorno revisits such concepts as the sublime the ugly and the beautiful demonstrating that concepts such as these are reservoirs of human experience These experiences ultimately underlie aesthetics for in Adorno s formulation art is the sedimented history of human misery Robert Hullot Kentor s translation painstakingly yet fluently reproduces the nuances and particularities of the original Long awaited and significant Aesthetic Theory is the clarifying lens through which the whole of Adorno s work is best viewed providing a framework within which his other major writings cohere Speaking Politically Eleni Philippou,2021-04-21 In this monograph Theodor Adorno s philosophy engages with postcolonial texts and authors that emerge out of situations of political extremity apartheid South Africa war torn Sri Lanka Pinochet s dictatorship and the Greek military junta This book is ground breaking in two key ways first it argues that Adorno can speak to texts with which he is not historically associated and second it uses Adorno s theory to unlock the liberatory potential of authors or novels traditionally understood to be apolitical While addressing Adorno s uneven critical response and dissemination in the Anglophone literary world the book also showcases Adorno s unique reading of the literary text both in terms of its innate historical content and formal aesthetic attributes Such a reading refuses to read postcolonial texts exclusively as political documents a problematic but changing tendency within postcolonial studies In short the book operates as a two way conversation asking What can Adorno s concepts give to certain literary texts but also reciprocally What can those texts give to our conventional understanding of Adorno and his applicability This book is an act of rethinking the literary in Adornian terms and rethinking Adorno through the literary
