Afro Asian Conflicts Changing Contours Costs And Consequences:

Afro-Asian Conflicts Debidatta Aurobinda Mahapatra, Seema Shekhawat, 2008 The issues of conflict and peace are of immense relevance in the post cold war world which has witnessed an unprecedented rise in local violent conflicts that have global ramifications Whether in Asia Africa or another continent these conflicts have Hot Spot: Sub-Saharan Africa Toyin Falola, Adebayo O. Oyebade, 2010-07-01 This book provides an extensive examination of the major conflicts in the extremely volatile region of sub Saharan Africa and their ramifications throughout the continent and beyond Conflict has been a critical factor in the making of contemporary Africa and its study is key to understanding the continent's tortuous history Hot Spot Sub Saharan Africa analyzes the area's major post independence conflicts intense enough to threaten national regional or international security This work defines conflict broadly to encompass political instability and state failure ethno religious tensions government and political corruption economic mismanagement and poverty cult violence and youth gangsterism Thematically organized chapters examine the origins and development of explosive hot spots including Sudan Somalia Rwanda and Democratic Republic of Congo in West Africa Nigeria Southern Africa the Horn of Africa and Central Africa and the Great Lakes region The book also explores outside factors that have impacted African conflicts such as superpower Cold War manipulation and foreign influence and intervention Young people, education, and sustainable development Peter Blaze Corcoran, Philip M. Osano, 2023-09-04 Young people have an enormous stake in the present and future state of Earth Almost half of the human population is under the age of 25 If young people's resources of energy time and knowledge are misdirected towards violence terrorism socially isolating technologies and unsustainable consumption civilization risks destabilization Yet there is a powerful opportunity for society if young people can participate positively in all aspects of sustainable development In order to do so young people need education political support resources skills and hope This volume offers a global perspective on education initiatives by and for young people that promote a transition to sustainability It includes 38 essays co authored by 68 contributors from 25 nations representing a diversity of geography gender and generation The development of youth leadership has been a central concern of my professional work Young people have a lot to offer to sustainable development and should participate in planning for our planet's future This rich collection of theoretical and practical approaches captures the growing response of young people to this challenge I am particularly pleased with the attention paid to the role of often underrepresented regions of the world to the role of women and to the Earth Charter in the creating of a peaceful and sustainable future Julia Marton Lefvire Director General of IUCN International Union for Conservation of Nature and former Rector of the University for Peace This book is a rich global tapestry depicting the inter linkages among youth education and sustainable development What is particularly interesting is that it shows how education at all levels can be a powerful engine for promoting sustainability This work is an important contribution to the United Nations Decade of Education for Sustainable Development Goolam Mohamedbhai Secretary

General Association of African Universities and Past President International Association of Universities This important and skillfully prepared book comes at a critical time A great strength of this volume is that it blends together theoretical and practical insights regarding education for sustainable development by and for young people It is written from diverse cultural perspectives from all world regions Readers from many fields especially young people and their teachers will find it timely and relevant I hope that it will inspire the younger generation to get involved in seeking solutions to the challenges we face James Gustave Speth Former Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme and Dean Emeritus of the School of Forestry and Environmental Studies at Yale University It is my hope that you are inspired as I have been by Young People Education and Sustainable Development Exploring Principles Perspectives and Praxis for the stories in this volume are full of the possibilities that emerge when we honor and support young people Ruud Lubbers Former Prime Minister of The Netherlands and past United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees

South-South Cooperation R. Modi, 2015-12-04 This book critically analyses the ways in which Africa has shifted from the periphery of global trade international relations and politics to the centre of the world stage because of its existing and potential economic prowess and purchasing power that the continent has to offer

Democracy in Crisis Bert Preiss, Claudia Brunner, 2013 This is the annual edited volume in the Austrian Study Center for Peace and Conflict Resolution ASPR publication series which addresses urgent issues surrounding the current crisis of democracy and the potential consequences and possibilities for civic protest and civic resistance This latest volume has two novelties for the first time it is published in English and it is edited by the ASPR in cooperation with the partner institutions of the recently formed Conflict Peace and Democracy Cluster CPDC the Center for Peace Research and Peace Education at the Alps Adriatic University of Klagenfurt Celovec the Institute of Conflict Research Vienna and the Democracy Center Vienna Series Dialog Contributions to Peace Research Vol 65
