Dissonant Archives Anthony Downey,2015-07-16 The archive is often viewed as a collection of historical documents that records and orders information about people places and events This view nevertheless obscures a crucial point the archive whilst subject to the vagaries of time and history can also determine the future This point has gained urgency in modern day North Africa and the Middle East where the archive has come to the fore as a site of social historical theoretical and political contestation

Dissonant Archives is the first book to consider the ways in which contemporary artists from the Middle East and North Africa including Emily Jacir Walid Raad Jananne Al Ani Basel Abbas and Ruanne Abou Rahme Mariam Ghani Zineb Sedira and Akram Zaatari are utilizing and disrupting the function of the archive and in so doing highlighting a systemic perhaps irrevocable crisis in institutional and state ordained archiving across the region In exploring and producing archives be they alternative interrogative or fictional these artists are not simply questioning the authenticity authority or authorship of the archive rather they are unlocking its regenerative radical potential The result provides essential insights into the nexus between art and politics in the contemporary Middle East

The Organ Douglas Earl Bush,Richard Kassel,2006 Organ Volume 3 of the Encyclopedia of Keyboard Instruments includes articles on the organ family of instruments including famous players composers instrument builders the construction of the instruments and related terminology It is the first complete reference on this important family of keyboard instruments that predated the piano The contributors include major scholars of music and musical instruments from around the world
