David Jacques

Andrea Palladio 1508 158:

Venice and the Renaissance Manfredo Tafuri, 1995-03-27 Pursuing the intersections of Venetian culture from the beginning of the sixteenth century through the first decades of the seventeenth Manfredo Tafuri develops a story crowded with characters and full of surprises He engages the doges Andrea Gritti and Leonardo Dona architects and artists Sansovino Serlio Palladio and Scamozzi and scientists Francesco Barozzi and Galileo He records the battle that was fought for architecture as metaphor for absolute truth and good government and contrasts these with the myths that inspired them

Chiswick House Gardens David Jacques, 2022-03-01 The grounds at Chiswick House are amongst the most iconic of all the historic gardens of Europe In the 1720s they reflected Lord Burlington's innovative ideas on Palladianism and antique gardens whilst the area transformed by William Kent to give a rustic appearance in the early 1730s has been recognised as one of or perhaps the birthplace of the landscape garden The grounds were periodically brought to the forefront of taste reaching another high point as the venue for spectacular garden parties under the 6th Duke of Devonshire As a garden of many periods it has given rise to passionate national debates since World War II on the principles of restoration and as a public park it has been an important project assisted by the National Lottery Heritage Fund Its renewed high state of keeping and its tranquil beauty belies its deep history of intellectual debate social tensions and practical difficulties The book concentrates on the four main periods when Chiswick gardens were in the national spotlight two when being in the forefront of taste and two concerning the restorations the first being in the 1950s when the whole question of garden restoration was entirely new The second restoration on and off since 1988 intersects with the development of a philosophical stance and national policy on the restoration of parks and gardens There is much of interest for art and architectural historians garden historians social historians and those local and international visitors who enjoy the finest public park in West London

Andrea Palladio Andrea Palladio, 2001 Guido Beltramini provides insightful historical and architectural references to this extravagant photographic survey With an introduction by architectural historian Howard Burns and a comprehensive bibliography of works on Palladio edited by Almut Goldhahn this beautifully written and sumptuously illustrated compendium is a must for architectural enthusiasts and historians alike BOOK JACKET

Goethe and the Greeks Humphry Trevelyan, 1981-10-15 The revolution that is going on in me is that which has taken place in every artist who has studied Nature long and diligently and now seeks the remains of the great spirit of antiquity his soul wells up he feels a transfiguration of himself from within a feeling of freer life higher existence lightness and grace It is Mr Trevelyan's purpose in this profoundly interesting book to trace the course of this development in Goethe to determine its extent to test its sincerity To this task he brings not only a complete knowledge of Goethe's life and works and of classical literature but also a fine critical sense which enables him to direct his detailed knowledge towards a philosophical conclusion So wrote Herbert Read in The Spectator in December 1941 on the first publication of Goethe and the Greeks Trevelyan's account of Goethe's fascination with the Greeks his striving to master their culture his vision of Hellenic man is judged not to have been supplanted by any later work in English Professor Lloyd Jones has written a substantial Foreword for this reissue of Trevelyan's book giving his own assessment of Goethe's search for Hellenism and its influence on his work London's Statues and Monuments Peter Matthews, 2012-07-20 The streets and public spaces of London are rich with statues and monuments commemorating the city's great figures and events from Nelson's Column in Trafalgar Square and Sir Christopher Wren's Great Fire Monument to the charming Peter Pan statue in Kensington Gardens the range is glorious Some commemorate events while others celebrate people real or fictional some take the form of small reliefs while others are huge bronzes on pedestals larger than life size Executed in stone bronze and a range of other materials London's statues and monuments include work by some of the world's greatest sculptors and this book is a fully illustrated guide to the pieces and their stories sometimes surprising and occasionally controversial but always fascinating

Ruin and Reformation in Spenser, Shakespeare, and Marvell Stewart Mottram, 2019-01-31 Ruin and Reformation in Spenser Shakespeare and Marvell explores writerly responses to the religious violence of the long reformation in England and Wales spanning over a century of literature and history from the establishment of the national church under Henry VIII 1534 to its disestablishment under Oliver Cromwell 1653 It focuses on representations of ruined churches monasteries and cathedrals in the works of a range of English Protestant writers including Spenser Shakespeare Jonson Herbert Denham and Marvell reading literature alongside episodes in English reformation history from the dissolution of the monasteries and the destruction of church icons and images to the puritan reforms of the 1640s The study departs from previous responses to literature's bare ruined choirs which tend to read writerly ambivalence towards the dissolution of the monasteries as evidence of traditionalist catholic or Laudian nostalgia for the pre reformation church Instead Ruin and Reformation shows how English protestants of all varieties from Laudians to Presbyterians could and did feel ambivalence towards and anxiety about the violence that accompanied the dissolution of the monasteries and other acts of protestant reform The study therefore demonstrates that writerly misgivings about ruin and reformation need not necessarily signal an author's opposition to England's reformation project In so doing Ruin and Reformation makes an important contribution to cross disciplinary debates about the character of English Protestantism in its formative century revealing that doubts about religious destruction were as much a part of the experience of English protestantism as expressions of popular support for iconoclasm in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries

Architecture, Art and Identity in Venice and its Territories, 1450-1750 Dr Nebahat Avcioglu, 2013-12-23 Inspired by Deborah Howard's leading role in fostering a historically grounded and interdisciplinary approach to the art and architecture of Venice the essays here examine the connections and rapports between art and identity through the discussion of patronage space domestic and ecclesiastical and dissemination of architectural knowledge as well as models within Venice its territories and beyond

"Architecture, Art and Identity in Venice and its Territories, 1450-1750" Nebahat

Avcioglu,2017-07-05 Cities are shaped as much by a repertoire of buildings works and objects as by cultural institutions ideas and interactions between forms and practices entangled in identity formations This is particularly true when seen through a city as forceful and splendid as Venice The essays in this volume investigate these connections between art and identity through discussions of patronage space and the dissemination of architectural models and knowledge in Venice its territories and beyond They celebrate Professor Deborah Howard s leading role in fostering a historically grounded and interdisciplinary approach to the art and architecture of Venice Based on an examination and re interpretation of a wide range of archival material and primary sources the contributing authors approach the notion of identity in its many guises as self representation as strong sub currents of spatial strategies as visual and semantic discourses and as political and imperial aspirations Employing interdisciplinary modes of interpretation these studies offer ground breaking analyses of canonical sites and works of art diverse groups of patrons as well as the life and oeuvre of leading architects such as Jacopo Sansovino and Andrea Palladio In so doing they link together citizens and nobles past and present the real and the symbolic space and sound religion and power the city and its parts Venice and the Stato da Mar the Serenissima and the Sublime Port

Picturing Machines 1400-1700 Wolfgang Lefevre,2023-12-26 How technical drawings shaped early engineering practice Technical drawings by the architects and engineers of the Renaissance made use of a range of new methods of graphic representation These drawings among them Leonardo da Vinci s famous drawings of mechanical devices have long been studied for their aesthetic qualities and technological ingenuity but their significance for the architects and engineers themselves is seldom considered The essays in Picturing Machines 1400 1700 take this alternate perspective and look at how drawing shaped the practice of early modern engineering They do so through detailed investigations of specific images looking at over 100 that range from sketches to perspective views to thoroughly constructed projections In early modern engineering practice drawings were not merely visualizations of ideas but acted as models that shaped ideas Picturing Machines establishes basic categories for the origins purposes functions and contexts of early modern engineering illustrations then treats a series of topics that not only focus on the way drawings became an indispensable means of engineering but also reflect the main stages in their historical development The authors examine the social interaction conveyed by early machine images and their function as communication between practitioners the knowledge either conveyed or presupposed by technical drawings as seen in those of Giorgio Martini and Leonardo drawings that required familiarity with geometry or geometric optics including the development of architectural plans and technical illustrations that bridged the gap between practical and theoretical mechanics Topos in Utopia: A peregrination to early modern utopianism's space Sotirios Triantafyllos,2021-09-07 Topos in Utopia examines early modern literary utopias and intentional communities social and cultural conception of space Starting from Thomas More s seminal work published in 1516 and covering a period of three centuries until the emergence of Enlightenment s echronia this work provides a thorough yet concise examination of the way space was imagined and utilised in the early modern visions of a better society Dealing with an aspect usually ignored by the scholars of early modern utopianism this book asks us to consider if utopias imaginary lands are based not only on abstract ideas but also on concrete spaces Shedding new light on a period where reformation zeal humanism s optimism colonialism s greed and a proto scientific discourse were combined to produce a series of alternative social and political paradigms this work transports us from the shores of America to the search for the Terra Australis Incognita and the desire to find a new and better world for us
