A Village Destroyed May 14 1999 War Crimes In Kosovo:

A Village Destroyed, May 14, 1999 Fred Abrahams, Eric Stover, 2001 Seldom does a book take readers so powerfully inside war crimes both into the pain of the victims and even more chilling into the minds of the perpetrators In a Washington so timid about supporting the international institutions designed to prevent such horrors this book should be mandatory reading Adam Hochschild author of King Leopold's Ghost a Story of Greed Terror and Heroism in Colonial Africa This searing documentary takes those large abstractions ethnic cleansing crimes against humanity and confronts us with the anguishing reality the faces of the alleged killers and their victims stories of shattered families desolation of a ruined community The book is also a stunning example of careful determined pursuit of evidence by frontline human rights workers our best hope for accountability and justice in the wake of systematic evil This unparalleled account thus records the worst and the best of human capacities H Jack Geiger M D founding member and past president of Physicians for Human Rights Marshalling precision in the face of obfuscation clarity in the face of desolation and lucidity in the face of oblivion the authors and creators of A Village Destroyed have somehow managed to meld witness and majesty Truth is beauty sometimes the only solace left to us and this is a harrowingly beautiful book Lawrence Weschler author of A Miracle A Universe Settling Accounts with Torturers Gilles Peress's photographs take us where we have never gone before into the killing zones of Kosovo where ethnic Albanians were tortured executed robbed and driven from the land Here is an astounding record that will make it impossible for us to say that we never knew what happened in Kosovo or how Gloria Emerson author of Gaza A Year in the Intifada A Village Destroyed is a very important book offering a revealing examination of how contemporary human rights investigations and international efforts to do justice are transforming the context in which great crimes are committed Aryeh Neier President of the Open Society Institute By some of the best investigators and reporters in the human rights movement A Village Destroyed helps comfort the afflicted by letting them speak in their own voices Let us hope it also serves to afflict the comforted Juan E Mendez Vice President Inter American Commission on Human Rights This is a groundbreaking work It is the anatomy of a crime the destruction of a village The photographs and witness accounts are of astounding power The book is crucial for anyone who wants to know what happened in Kosovo Laura Silber co author of Yugoslavia Death of a Nation Afterimages Liam Kennedy, 2016-03 Liam Kennedy here takes as his focus the ways in which selected photographers have sought to frame the activities and effects of American foreign policy often with a critical perspective and how their work engages the dynamics of power and knowledge that attend the American worldview What is at issue in this book is understanding relations between the geopolitical conditions of visibility and the particulars of the image Conditions of visibility for Kennedy are the ideologies that determine certain ways of seeing that support actions and representations which establish in visibilities and which police the relationship between seeing and believing the American worldview The individual photographers whose work Kennedy so insightfully dissects are those who have pushed the boundaries of photographic practice and who reflect critically on the contexts and scenery of war Larry Burrows and Philip Jones Griffiths in Vietnam Gilles Peress covering the Iranian Revolution Susan Meiselas in El Salvador and Nicaragua Ron Haviv and Gary Knight in the Balkans Ashley Gilbertson and Chris Hondros in Iraq and Tim Hetherington and Lynsey Addario in Afghanistan These individuals expanded the conception and technical repertoire of photojournalism receiving critical acclaim provoking public and professional controversy and often incurring great personal cost to themselves Afterimages presents us with a revisionary understanding of the art of conflict photography The images are often searing they sometimes demonize and dehumanize the enemy but also humanize friend or victim a focus on the human roots the range of feeling in such imagery from horror to pity

Kosovo, A Documentary History Robert Elsie, Bejtullah D. Destani, 2018-01-30 The question of Kosovan sovereignty and independence has a history which stretches far back beyond the outbreak of war in 1998 This volume is a compilation of key documents on Kosovo from the first half of the twentieth century These texts including numerous diplomatic despatches from the British Foreign Office deal initially with the Albanian uprising against Ottoman rule in the spring of 1912 and in particular with the period of the Serbian invasion of Kosovo in late 1912 and the repercussions of the conquest for the Albanian population The documents from 1918 to the early 1920s focus mainly on endeavours by Albanian leaders including those of the so called Kosovo Committee in exile to bring the plight of their people to the attention of the outside world endeavours which largely failed Further documents reflect the situation in Kosovo up to the outbreak of World War II This collection provides new perspectives on the Kosovo question and includes many documents which have been largely unavailable up to now It sheds new light on many of the major and minor episodes that channelled and determined subsequent events including the Kosovo War of 1998 1999 and the declaration of independence in February 2008

The Strongest Link Anna Di Lellio, Garentina Kraja, 2025-06-12 From February 1998 until June 1999 a war between the forces of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the separatist Kosovo Liberation Army ravaged Kosovo The counterinsurgency quickly turned into a state led campaign of ethnic cleansing that resulted in the killing deportation and rape of thousands of Albanian civilians While it is estimated that over 20 000 women were victims of sexual violence during the war for nearly two decades after its end few survivors have come forward to publicly discuss what they endured In The Strongest Link Anna Di Lellio and Garentina Kraja aim to break that silence by presenting an oral history of women who survived weaponized rape during the Kosovo War In their own voices twenty women describe the war's terror as well as the nightmares that still haunt them today Through these narratives readers are given a glimpse into what it's like to be a woman whose life has been altered and undone by a violent regime war and patriarchal rules We see how these women suffered but also how they exhibited immense bravery and an unflagging dedication to their families and communities Di Lellio and Kraja contextualize these narratives within a history of state repression ethnic cleansing and lack of justice By weaving these women's stories together and placing them within a chronological storyline these stories can be read as one might listen to a
