A Servant Of Slaves The Life Of Henriette Delille:

A Servant of Slaves William Kelley, 2003 Born in the racist antebellum South Henriette DeLille felt a lifelong calling to serve the poor but could not enter a holy order because she was an octoroon part African American Servant to the Slaves David R. Collins, 2000 A biography of Henriette Delille the African American founder of the Sisters of the Holy Family who dedicated her life to the service of slaves and those in need in nineteenth century New Orleans The New Orleans Sisters of the Holy Family Edward T. Brett, 2012-04-15 The Sisters of the Holy Family founded in New Orleans in 1842 were the first African American Catholics to serve as missionaries This story of their little known missionary efforts in Belize from 1898 to 2008 builds upon their already distinguished work through the Archdiocese of New Orleans of teaching slaves and free people of color caring for orphans and the elderly and tending to the poor and needy Utilizing previously unpublished archival documents along with extensive personal correspondence and interviews Edward T Brett has produced a fascinating account of the 110 year mission of the Sisters of the Holy Family to the Garifuna people of Belize Brett discusses the foundation and growth of the struggling order in New Orleans up to the sisters decision in 1898 to accept a teaching commitment in the Stann Creek District of what was then British Honduras The early history of the British Honduras mission concentrates especially on Mother Austin Jones the superior responsible for expanding the order s work into the mission field In examining the Belizean mission from the eve of the Second Vatican Council through the post Vatican II years Brett sensitively chronicles the sisters efforts to conform to the spirit of the council and describes the creative innovations that the Holy Family community introduced into the Belizean educational system In the final chapter he looks at the congregation s efforts to sustain its missionary work in the face of the shortage of new religious vocations Brett s study is more than just a chronicle of the Holy Family Sisters accomplishments in Belize He treats the issues of racism and gender discrimination that the African American congregation encountered both within the church and in society demonstrating how the sisters survived and even thrived by learning how to skillfully negotiate with the white dominant power structure Catholic

Heroes of Civil and Human Rights Matthew Daniels, Roxanne King, 2024-09-13 This inspiring work profiles sixteen heroic Catholic men and women who defied the odds to advance civil and human rights around the world Spanning from the birth of the United States to World War II Germany to the current Latin American immigration crisis this book features people whose faith drove them to courageously defend the dignity of the children of God especially the most vulnerable transforming many lives and paving the way for a more equitable society To understand human rights however we need theology Supported by official Church documents each chapter is themed on one of the pillars of Catholic social teaching freedom perseverance hope justice and conscience These short compelling biographies of figures who exemplify each pillar demonstrate how the teachings of Christ through his Church can drive ordinary believers to do extraordinary deeds Among the heroes are former slave Venerable Father Augustine Tolton Austrian farmer Blessed Franz J gerst tter Native American catechist Nicholas

Black Elk Servant of God Dorothy Day Saint Katharine Drexel Saint Teresa of Calcutta and Saint Oscar Romero Henriette Delille Virginia Meacham Gould, Charles E. Nolan, 1998 The Mysticism of Ordinary Life Andrew Prevot, 2023 The Mysticism of Ordinary Life presents a new vision of Christian mystical theology offering critical interpretations of the theologians philosophers and intersectional feminists who draw on mystical traditions to affirm ordinary life arguing that everyday experiences of divine grace can be an empowering source of social transformation Black Catholic Studies Reader David J. Endres, 2021-04-16 This first ever Black Catholic Studies Reader offers an introduction to the theology and history of the Black Catholic experience from those who know it best Black Catholic scholars teachers activists and ministers The reader offers a multi faceted interdisciplinary approach that illuminates what it means to be Black and Catholic in the United States This collection of essays from prominent scholars both past and present brings together contributions from theologians M Shawn Copeland Kim Harris Diana Hayes Bryan Massingale and C Vanessa White and historians Cecilia Moore Diane Batts Morrow and Ronald Sharps and selections from an earlier generation of thinkers and activists including Thea Bowman Cyprian Davis and Clarence Rivers Contributions delve into the interlocking fields of history spirituality liturgy and biography Through their contributions Black Catholic Studies scholars engage theologies of liberation and the reality of racism the Black struggle for recognition within the Church and the distinctiveness of African inspired spirituality prayer and worship By considering their racial and religious identities these select Black Catholic theologians and historians add their voices to the contemporary conversation surrounding culture race and religion in America inviting engagement from students and teachers of the American experience social commentators and advocates and theologians and persons of faith

The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The New Orleans of Fiction A Research Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included Henriette Delille Elsie B. Martinez, Colette H. Stelly, 2010-05-24 Beginning in 1812 this fictional biography follows the life of Henriette Delille a free woman of color who founded the Sisters of the Holy Family This examination recounts her spiritual journey and struggle to break free from French Quarter society despite her family s protests Instead she chose to focus on the needs of the less fortunate teaching such principles as chastity and obedience until her death in 1862 Today the Catholic Church is considering the Venerable Henriette Delille for sainthood making her the first African American in North America to receive such an honor Her story provides a glimpse of what life was like in the French Quarter during the nineteenth century and offers enlightenment on voodoo traditions and the pla age system Henriette Delille Cyprian Davis,2004
