

The background of the book cover is a photograph showing a vast flock of birds, likely terns, in flight over a body of water. The birds are densely packed in some areas, creating a sense of movement and activity. In the lower center of the image, a small boat with two people is visible, surrounded by the birds. The overall scene is dynamic and captures a moment of intense natural activity.

Animals Biopolitics Law Lively Legalities:

Animals, Biopolitics, Law Irus Braverman, 2015-12-22 Typically the legal investigation of nonhuman life and of animal life in particular is conducted through the discourse of animal rights. Within this discourse legal rights are extended to certain nonhuman animals through the same liberal framework that has afforded human rights before it. Animals Biopolitics Law envisions the possibility of lively legalities that move beyond the humanist perspective. Drawing on an array of expertise from law, geography and anthropology through animal studies and posthumanism to science and technology studies, this interdisciplinary collection asks what in legal terms it means to be human and nonhuman, what it means to govern and to be governed, and what are the ethical and political concerns that emerge in the project of governing not only human but also more than human life.

Research Handbook on Animal Law and Animal Rights Tomasz Pietrzykowski, Birgitta Wahlberg, 2025-09-10 This Research Handbook examines contemporary animal law and its relationship to the philosophical and legal idea of animal rights. Adopting an inter- and multidisciplinary approach, it explores the role of legal theory, legal practice, strategic litigation and advocacy in the global development of laws protecting animals. Tomasz Pietrzykowski and Birgitta Wahlberg bring together expert contributing authors to discuss interspecies constitutionalizing and the evolution of animal law scholarship.

Laws of the Sea Irus Braverman, 2022-08-03 Laws of the Sea assembles scholars from law, geography, anthropology and environmental humanities to consider the possibilities of a critical ocean approach in legal studies. Unlike the United Nations' monumental Convention on the Law of the Sea, which imagines one comprehensive constitutional framework for governing the ocean, Laws of the Sea approaches oceanic law in plural and dynamic ways. Critically engaging contemporary concerns about the fate of the ocean, the collection's twelve chapters range from hydrothermal vents through the continental shelf and marine genetic resources to coastal communities in France, Sweden, Florida and Indonesia. Documenting the longstanding binary of land and sea, the chapters pose a fundamental challenge to Europe's law's terracentrism and its pervasive influence on juridical modes of knowing and making the world. Together, the chapters ask if contemporary Eurocentric law and international law, in particular, are capable of moving away from its capitalist and colonial legacies established through myriad oceanic abstractions and classifications toward more amphibious legalities Laws of the Sea will appeal to legal scholars geographers anthropologists cultural and political theorists as well as scholars in the environmental humanities political ecology ocean studies and animal studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Research Handbook on Critical Legal Theory Emiliós Christodoulidis, Ruth Dukes, Marco Goldoni, 2019 Critical theory characteristically linked with the politics of theoretical engagement covers the manifold of the connections between theory and praxis This thought provoking Research Handbook captures the broad range of those connections as far as legal thought is concerned and retains an emphasis both on the politics of theory and on the notion of theoretical engagement The first part examines the question of definition and tracks the origins and development of critical legal theory along its European and North American trajectories The second part looks at the thematic connections between the development of legal theory and other currents of critical thought such as Feminism Marxism Critical Race Theory varieties of post modernism as well as the various turns ethical aesthetic political of critical legal theory The third and final part explores particular fields of law addressing the question how the field has been shaped by critical legal theory or what critical approaches reveal about the field with the clear focus on opportunities for social transformation

Legal Geography Tayanah O'Donnell, Daniel F. Robinson, Josephine Gillespie, 2019-12-06 This book is the first legal geography book to explicitly engage in method It complements this by also bringing together different perspectives on the emerging school of legal geography It explores human environment interactions and showcases distinct environmental legal geography scholarship Legal Geography Perspectives and Methods is an innovative book concerned with a new relational and material way of examining our legal spatial world With chapters examining natural resource management Indigenous knowledge and political ecology scholarship the text introduces legal geography's modes of analysis and critique The book explores topics such as Indigenous environmental rights the impacts of extractive industries mediation of climate change food animal and plant patents fossil fuels mining and coastal environments based on empirical jurisdictional and methodological insights from Australia New Zealand and the Asia Pacific to demonstrate how space and place are invoked in legal processes and contestations and the methods that may be employed to explore these processes and contestations This book examines the role of legal geographies in the 21st century beyond the simple law in action and it will thus appeal to students of socio legal studies human geography environmental studies environmental policy as well as politics and international relations

Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter, Ivan Callus, Manuela Rossini, Marija Grech, Megen de Bruin-Molé, Christopher John Müller, 2022-11-28 Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism is a major reference work on the paradigm emerging from the challenges to humanism humanity and the human posed by the erosion of the traditional demarcations between the human and nonhuman This handbook surveys and speculates on the ways in which the posthumanist paradigm emerged transformed and might further develop across the humanities With its focus on the posthuman as a figure on posthumanism as a social discourse and on posthumanisation as an on going historical and ontological process the volume highlights the relationship between the humanities and sciences The essays engage with posthumanism in connection with subfields like the environmental humanities health humanities animal studies and disability studies The book also traces the historical representations and understanding of posthumanism across time Additionally the contributions address genre and forms such as autobiography games art film museums and topics such as climate change speciesism anthropocentrism and biopolitics to name a few This handbook considers posthumanism s impact across disciplines and areas of study

Blue Legalities Irus Braverman, Elizabeth R. Johnson, 2020-01-17 The ocean and its inhabitants sketch and stretch our understandings of law in unexpected ways Inspired by the blue turn in the social sciences and humanities Blue Legalities explores how regulatory frameworks and governmental infrastructures are made reworked and contested in the oceans Its interdisciplinary contributors analyze topics that range from militarization and Maori cosmologies to island building in the South China Sea and underwater robotics Throughout Blue Legalities illuminates the vast and unusual challenges associated with regulating the turbulent materialities and lives of the sea Offering much more than an analysis of legal frameworks the chapters in this volume show how the more than human ocean is central to the construction of terrestrial institutions and modes of governance By thinking with the more than human ocean Blue Legalities questions what we think we know and what we don t know about oceans our earthly planet and ourselves Contributors Stacy Alaimo Amy Braun Irus Braverman Holly Jean Buck Jennifer L Gaynor Stefan Helmreich Elizabeth R Johnson Stephanie Jones Zsofia Korosy Berit Kristoffersen Jessica Lehman Astrida Neimanis Susan Reid Alison Rieser Katherine G Sammler Astrid Schrader Kristen L Shake Phil Steinberg

The Law's Ultimate Frontier: Towards an Ecological Jurisprudence Horatia Muir Watt, 2023-05-18 This important book offers an ambitious and interdisciplinary vision of how private international law or the conflict of laws might serve as a heuristic for re working our general understandings of legality in directions that respond to ever deepening global ecological crises Unusual in legal scholarship the author borrows in bricolage mode from the work of Bruno Latour alongside indigenous cosmologies extinction theories and Levinassian phenomenology to demonstrate why this field s specific frontier location at the outpost of the law where it is viewed from the outside as obscure and from the inside as a self contained normative world generates its potential power to transform law generally and globally Combining pragmatic and pluralist theory with an excavation of shadow ecological dimensions of law the author a recognised authority within the field as conventionally understood offers a truly global view Put simply it is a generational magnum opus All international and transnational lawyers be they in the private or public field should read this book
