Living Off the Government? Anne M. Whitesell, 2024-11-19 Explores the ways welfare recipients lack adequate political representation Who deserves public assistance from the government This age old question has been revived by policymakers pundits and activists following the massive economic impact of the COVID 19 pandemic Anne Whitesell takes up this timely debate showing us how our welfare system in its current state fails the people it is designed to serve From debates over stimulus check eligibility to the uncertain future of unemployment benefits Living Off the Government tackles it all Examining welfare rules across eight different states as well as 19 000 state and local interest groups Whitesell shows how we determine who is and who isn t deserving of government assistance She explores racial and gender stereotypes surrounding welfare recipients particularly Black women and mothers how different groups take advantage of these harmful stereotypes to push their own political agendas and how the interests and needs of welfare recipients are inadequately represented as a result Living Off the Government highlights how harmful stereotypes about the race gender and class of welfare recipients filter into our highly polarized political arena to shape public policy Whitesell calls out a system that she believes serves special interests and not the interests of low income Americans
