Workplace Cristyn L. Elder,Bethany Davila,2019-03-15 Defining Locating and Addressing Bullying in the WPA Workplace is the first volume to take up the issue of bullying in writing programs Contributors to this collection share their personal stories and analyze varieties of collegial malevolence they have experienced as WPAs with consequences in emotional mental and physical health and in personal and institutional economies Contributors of varying status in different types of programs across many kinds of institutions describe various forms of bullying including microaggressions incivility mobbing and emotional abuse They define bullying as institutional racism academic systemic incivility a crisis of insularity and faculty fundamentalism They locate bullying in institutional contexts including research institutions small liberal arts colleges community colleges and writing programs and writing centers These locations are used as points of departure to further theorize bullying and to provide clear advice about agentive responses A culture of silence discourages discussions of this behavior making it difficult to address abuse This silence also normalizes patterns and cultivates the perception that bullying arises naturally Defining Locating and Addressing Bullying in the WPA Workplace helps the field to name these patterns of behaviors as bullying and resist ideologies of normalcy encouraging and empowering readers to take an active role in defining locating and addressing bullying in their own workplaces Contributors Sarah Allen Andrea Dardello Harry Denny Dawn Fels Bre Garrett W Gary Griswold Amy C Heckathorn Aurora Matzke Staci Perryman Clark Sherry Rankins Robertson Erec Smith A Day in the Life of Sharon Boyce Sharon Boyce,2005-08 Sharon Boyce has an extensive background in education and developed this kit to promote equity and understanding of disability in schools Her candid discussion about her personal experience combined with academic argument for the merits of inclusion and practical guidelines for inclusion make this an invaluable resource for all educators The material presented is comprehensive in its coverage of aspects of living with a disability As well as suggesting awareness raising activities for early childhood primary and secondary classes Boyce includes useful information on support services offered by Education Queensland and inclusive pedagogies such as Gardner s multiple intelligences and Bloom s taxonomy She gives guidance on how people with disabilities feel about the way others approach them appropriate language for referring to disabilities design principles and Australian standards for accessible buildings In one section Boyce tells her own story of living with rheumatoid arthritis and dealing with the reactions of others to her disability There is nothing sensational or patronising in her approach her purpose is to raise awareness and debunk common misconceptions She stars in an amateur DVD that will help students to empathise with the everyday adaptations that enable her to live a full life Accompanying posters also help to personalise Sharon s experience
