Angola The Real Story:

Angola, the Real Story Dr. P. K. Huibregtse, 2013 Angola, the Real Story P. K. Huibregtse, 1970 From Water to Wine: Angola's Transformation Jess Auerbach, 2020-09-04

From Water to Wine explores how Angola has changed since the end of its civil war in 2002. Its focus is on the middle class defined as those with a house, a car, and an education and their consumption aspirations and hopes for their families. It takes as its starting point what is working in Angola rather than what is going wrong and makes a deliberate political choice to give attention to beauty and happiness in everyday life in a country that has had an unusually troubled history. Each chapter focuses on one of the five senses with the introduction and conclusion provoking reflection on proprioception or kinesthesia and curiosity. Various media are employed: poetry, recipes, photos, comics, and other textual experiments to engage readers and their senses. Written for a broad audience, this text is an excellent addition to the study of Africa, the lusophone world, international development, sensory ethnography, and ethnographic writing.

A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei, 1997-04-13

This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up-to-date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa. Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship, it focusses on the changing modes of production, on gender relations, and on ecology, laying particular stress on viewing history from below. A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history. The work falls into three sections. The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age. The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines; the second section ends in the sixteenth century, the third carries the story on to 1870. A second volume, now in preparation, will cover the period from 1870 to 1995. This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject, addressed to a largely undergraduate level student. Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa, generally not reflected in the textbooks; these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender. Isichei's book is also more radical.

Transformations of Rural Spaces in Mozambique Cecilia Navarra, Cristina Udelsmann Rodrigues, 2021-11-18

With contributions from both Mozambican and non-Mozambican scholars of multi-disciplinary backgrounds and approaches, this book provides a range of new perspectives on how Mozambique has been characterized by profound changes in its rural communities and places. Despite the persistence of poverty in Mozambique, significant investments have been made in rural areas in extractive industry or agribusiness, resulting in both the transformation of these areas and a new set of tensions and conflicts related to land tenure and population resettlement. Meanwhile, the Mozambican rural landscape is one dominated by smallholders whose livelihoods depend on both farming and non-farming activities and who are often extremely vulnerable to shocks and pressure over resources. The emergence of new civil society organizations has led to clashes with the interests of local political, administrative, and economic powers, creating fresh social conflicts. Transformations of the Rural Spaces in

Mozambique examines the process of transformation across a range of settings from the impacts of large scale industries and the transformation of agriculture to relations between state and non state actors and issues related to land Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions

Resistance and Colonialism Nuno Domingos, Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo, Ricardo Roque, 2019-08-01 This volume offers a critical re examination of colonial and anti colonial resistance imageries and practices in imperial history It offers a fresh critique of both pejorative and celebratory readings of insurgent peoples and it seeks to revitalize the study of resistance as an analytical field in the comparative history of Western colonialisms It explores how to read and de code these issues in archival documents and how to conjugate documental approaches with oral history indigenous memories and international histories of empire The topics explored include runaway slaves and slave rebellions mutiny and banditry memories and practices of guerrilla and liberation diplomatic negotiations and cross border confrontations theft collaboration and even the subversive effects of nature in colonial projects of labor exploitation Getting the Real Story Gerald B. A prominent Portuguese civil servant dubbed the labor system in Angola a colossal lie because the reality so contradicted the law.
