And They Didn't Die Women Writing Africa

Michael Hoelscher

And They Didn't Die Women Writing Africa:

And They Didn't Die Lauretta Ngcobo, 2014-09-14 Drawing on firsthand experience distinguished South African writer Lauretta Ngcobo depicts the lives of rural women in South Africa paying homage to the extraordinary courage and remarkable endurance of these unsung heroines of the struggle against apartheid Set in the barren Sabelweini Valley in the 1950s to 1980s the novel centers around one young woman Jezile whose political consciousness deepens as state laws threaten her earnings and her land Arrested along with hundreds of others and sentenced to six months hard labor in prison Jezile returns home to find her child dying of starvation When her husband is arrested for stealing milk to save the child Jezile must fight to ensure her family's survival Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Land and Nationalism in Fictions from Southern Africa James Graham, 2011-01-13 By employing a range of critical perspectives cultural materialist feminist and ecocritical Graham investigates the relation between land and nationalism in South African and Zimbabwean fiction from the 1960s to the present This study discusses a wide range of writing including novels by Coetzee Gordimer Head Hove and Vera David's Story Zoë Wicomb, 2015-04-25 A powerful post apartheid novel and winner of South Africa's M Net Literary Award hailed by J M Coetzee as a tremendous achievement South Africa 1991 Nelson Mandela is freed from prison the African National Congress is now legal and a new day dawns in Cape Town David Dirkse part of the underground world of activists spies and saboteurs in the liberation movement suddenly finds himself above ground With time to think after the unbanning of the movement David searches his family tree tracing his bloodline to the mixed race Coloured people of South Africa and their antecedents among the indigenous people and early colonial settlers But as David studies his roots he soon learns that he's on a hit list Now caught in a web of surveillance and betrayal he's forced to rethink his role in the struggle for nonracial democracy the loyalty of his comrades and his own conceptions of freedom Mesmerizing and multilayered Wicomb's award winning novel delivers a moving examination of the nature of political vision memory and truth A delicate powerful novel guided by the paradoxes of witnessing the certainties of national liberation and the uncertainties of ground level hybrid identity the mysteries of sexual exchange the austerity of political fiction Wicomb's book belongs on a shelf with books by Maryse Condé and Yvette Christians Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak author of A Critique of Postcolonial Reason

The Rape of Sita Lindsey Collen, 2004 Banned upon its first publication in Mauritius winner of the prestigious Commonwealth Prize for Best Novel in Africa this stylistically radical novel is both starkly modern in its conception and reminiscent of ancient myth in its captivating narrative and allegorical power Deftly blending oral and literary traditions Collen has crafted a short epic that evokes legacies of oppression and resistance of women of cultures and of nations Through the intersecting frames of Indian African and European cultures that make up the tiny African island nation of Mauritius emerges Sita a living legend in her country and activist in the national struggle for independence She is also a strong woman who has buried a secret that threatens to overwhelm her As Sita makes terrifying plunges into the black hole of her fragmented memory her painful and angry search to come to terms with her past extends beyond her own violation Echoing ancient folk tales and religious prophecies Sita's modern day struggle to remember her own history and rape comes to symbolize all rapes all violations and all colonizations

Diasporic Women's Writing of the Black Atlantic Emilia María Durán-Almaraz, Esther Álvarez López, 2013-10-30 This book brings together a complete set of approaches to works by female authors that articulate the black Atlantic in relation to the interplay of race class and gender The chapters provide the grounds to engender a more complex understanding of the scattered geographies of the African diaspora in the Atlantic basin The variety of approaches displayed bears witness to the vitality of a field that over the years has become a diasporic formation itself as it incorporates critical insights and theoretical frameworks from multiple disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities thus exposing the manifold character of black diasporic interconnections within and beyond the Atlantic Focusing on a wide array of contemporary literary and performance texts by women writers and performers from diverse locations including the Caribbean Canada Africa the US and the UK chapters visit genres such as performance art the novel science fiction short stories and music For these purposes the volume is organized around two significant dimensions of diasporas on the one hand the material corporeal and spatial locations where those displacements associated with travel and exile occur and on the other the fluid environments and networks that connect distant places cultures and times This collection explores the ways in which women of African descent shape the cultures and histories in the modern colonial and postcolonial Atlantic worlds

Feminism and Modernity in Anglophone African Women's Writing Dobrota Pucherová, 2022-07-29 This book re-reads the last 60 years of Anglophone African women's writing from a transnational and trans-historical feminist perspective rather than postcolonial from which these texts have been traditionally interpreted Such a comparative frame throws into relief patterns across time and space that make it possible to situate this writing as an integral part of women's literary history. Revisiting this literature in a comparative context with Western women writers since the 18th century, the author highlights how invocations of tradition have been used by patriarchy everywhere to subjugate women. The similarities between women's struggles worldwide and the feminist imagination it produced. The author argues that in the 21st century African feminism has undergone a major epistemic shift from a culturally exclusive to a relational feminism that conceptualizes African femininity through the risky opening of oneself to otherness, transculturation and translation. Like Western feminists in the 1960s, contemporary African women writers are turning their attention to the female body as the prime site of women's oppression and freedom, reframing feminism as a demand for universal human rights and actively shaping global discourses on gender, modernity and democracy. The book will be of interest to students and researchers of African literature but also feminist literary scholars and comparatists more generally. South African London Andrea Thorpe, 2021-11-30. This book presents a long ranging and in depth study of South African writing set in London during the apartheid years and beyond. Since London served as an important site of South African exile and emigration particularly during the second half of the twentieth century, the city shaped the history of South African letters in meaningful and material ways. Being in London allowed South African writers to engage with their own expectations of Englishness and to rethink their South African identities. The book presents a range of diverse and fascinating responses by South African writers that provide nuanced perspectives on exile, global racism and modernity. Writers studied include Peter Abrahams, Dan Jacobson, Noni Jabavu, Todd Matshikiza, Arthur Nortje, Lauretta Ngcobo, J. M. Coetzee, Justin Cartwright and Ishtiyaz Shukri. South African London offers an original and multi faceted take on both London writing and South African twentieth century literature. Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W.

Conolly, 2004-11-30. Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world. Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect. In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories. In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide. African Women's Unique Vulnerabilities to HIV/AIDS L. Fuller, 2008-10-27. This is an in depth look at the biomedical, socio cultural, economic, legal and political and educational vulnerabilities faced by the population that is most vulnerable to the risk of contracting HIV/AIDS.
