Translated by Haakon M. Chevalier André Malraux, 1936 Man's Fate - André Malraux , 2020 A collection of critical essays on Malraux s novel Man s Fate arranged in chronological order of publication This is an electronic version of the original edition of this Bloom s Modern Critical Interpretations title containin Andre Malraux: Variations on the Theme of Man's Fate in L'espoir and Les Noyers de L'Altenburg Christa Erika Johannes, 1963 The Artist and Political Vision Benjamin R. Barber, Michael J. Gargas McGrath, Art and politics are often regarded as denizens of different realms but few artists have been comfortable with the notion of a purely aesthetic definition of art The artist has a public and thus political vision of the world interpreted by his art no less than the statesman and the legislator have a creative vision of the world they wish to make The sixteen original essays in this volume bear eloquent witness to this interpenetration of art and politics Each confronts the intersection of the aesthetic and the social each is concerned with the interface of poetic vision and political vision of reflection and action They take art in the broadest sense ranging over poets dramatists novelists essayists and filmmakers Their focus is on art and its political dilemmas not simply on the artist They consider the issues raised for politics and culture by alienation violence modernization technology democracy progress and revolution And they debate the capacity of art to stimulate social change and incite revolution the temptations of social control of culture and of political censorship the uncertain relationship between art and history the impact of economic structure on artistic creation and of economic class on artistic product the common ground between art and legislation and between creativity and control
