Martin,1995 Red Markers, Close Air Support for the Vietnamese Airborne, 1962-1975 Gary Willis,2013 Award winning history of a segment of the Vietnam War From 1962 until early 1973 a handful of USAF officers and airmen directed close air support for the Vietnamese Airborne and its American advisors in MACV Advisory Team 162 This Red Marker detachment began as a single Air Liaison Officer It grew into a combat unit of 36 personnel with a dozen aircraft before shrinking to a single officer as the United States withdrew from combat Over the decade of its existence less than 175 men served in the unit Five of them died in combat This award winning history of these forward air controllers from the beginning to the end is based on contributions from 76 men who were there A Raid Too Far James H. Willbanks,2014-01-30 In February 1971 the Army of the Republic of Vietnam ARVN launched an incursion into Laos in an attempt to cut the Ho Chi Minh Trail and destroy North Vietnamese Army NVA base areas along the border This movement would be the first real test of Vietnamization Pres Richard Nixon's program to turn the fighting over to South Vietnamese forces as US combat troops were withdrawn US ground forces would support the operation from within South Vietnam and would pave the way to the border for ARVN troops and US air support would cover the South Vietnamese forces once they entered Laos but the South Vietnamese forces would attack on the ground alone The operation dubbed Lam Son 719 went very well for the first few days but as movement became bogged down the NVA rushed reinforcements to the battle and the ARVN forces found themselves under heavy attack US airpower wreaked havoc on the North Vietnamese troops but the South Vietnamese never regained momentum and ultimately began to withdraw back into their own country under heavy enemy pressure In this first in depth study of this operation military historian and Vietnam veteran James H Willbanks traces the details of battle analyzes what went wrong and suggests insights into the difficulties currently being incurred with the training of indigenous forces Supplement to Vietnam 1964-1973,2005 First In, Last Out John D Howard,2023-06-14 A Vietnam veteran recounts his experience through two tours of duty early in the conflict and then in its final stages Fresh out of West Point John Howard arrived for his first tour in Vietnam in 1965 the first full year of escalation when U S troop levels increased dramatically from 23 000 to 184 000 When Howard returned for a second tour in 1972 troop strength stood at 24 000 and would dwindle to a mere fifty the following year He thus participated in the very early and very late stages of American military involvement in the Vietnam War Howard's two tours the first as a platoon commander and member of an elite counter guerrilla force and the second as a senior advisor to the South Vietnamese provide a fascinating lens through which to view not only one soldier's experience in Vietnam but also the country's Supplement to Vietnam 1964-1973 Elwood L.
