A Race For Real Sailors The Bluenose And The International Fishermens Cup 1920 1938:

A Race for Real Sailors Keith McLaren, 2021-03-26 In the summer of 1920 the public following the latest America's Cup series were frustrated to find that every time the wind got up the organizers called off the race. There was muttering in the taverns of Halifax and Lunenburg why not show these fancy yachtsmen what real sailors can do. A Nova Scotia newspaper donated a trophy and put out a challenge to their rivals in New England inviting them to meet the Maritimes best in a race for real sailors. A Race for Real Sailors is a vibrant history of the Fishermen's Cup series which dominated sporting headlines between the two world wars. The salt spray practically blows off the page as the author's arresting style captures the drama of each race and the personalities of the ships that contested them: the Delawana and the Esperanto, the Columbia and the Gertrude L. Thebaud, and dominating them all the Bluenose, the big brute from Lunenburg whose image shines on the Canadian dime to this day. Vying for the spotlight are the boats larger than life: skippers among them Marty Welch, the hard-charging American who first took the cup; Ben Pine, the Gloucester scrap dealer whose passion kept the races afloat when they seemed destined to fade away; and the irascible, impossible Angus Walters, master of the Bluenose who repeatedly broke American hearts but whose own heart was broken by Canada's refusal to come to the rescue of his beloved vessel. This stirring and poignant tale is illustrated with 51 historical photographs and five maps and rounded out by a glossary of sailing terms and an appendix of the ever-changing race rules. This is a story that will keep even confirmed landlubbers pegged to their seats: a tale of iron men and wooden ships whose time will never come again. A Race for Real Sailors: The Bluenose and the International Fishermen's Cup, 1920-1938 Keith McLaren, 2021-03-26 The exciting tale of the Bluenose and the International Fishermen's Cup series is now available in trade paper just in time for the Canadian icon's centennial. Sterling Hayden's Wars Lee Mandel, 2018-05-03 A master sailor when he was barely in his twenties, Sterling Hayden (1916-1986) became an overnight film star despite having no training in acting. After starring in two major films, he quit Hollywood and trained as a commando in Europe. Hayden joined the OSS and fought in the Balkans and Mediterranean, earning a Silver Star for his distinguished service. Hayden's wartime admiration for the Yugoslavian Partisans led to a brief membership in the Communist Party after the war, and this would come back to haunt him when he was called to testify in front of the House Un-American Activities Committee where he became the first star to name names. After returning to Hollywood, Hayden's film career flourished as he starred in several films, including The Asphalt Jungle, Denver and Rio Grande, and The Killing. His personal life, however, descended into chaos. His bitter custody battle with his second wife led to his well-publicized and controversial kidnapping of their four children for a voyage to Tahiti. Increasing alcohol and substance abuse would take its toll, but Hayden's career would be revived as a character actor in such classics as Dr. Strangelove and The Godfather. In addition, he proved to be an excellent author, penning two international bestsellers. Despite these achievements, his later years were characterized by depression, self-doubt, alcoholism, and substance abuse. His life was metaphorically a
