Men and Masculinities in Irish Cinema D. Ging, 2012-12-03 Spanning a broad trajectory from the New Gaelic Man of post independence Ireland to the slick urban gangsters of contemporary productions this study traces a significant shift from idealistic images of Irish manhood to a much more diverse and gender politically ambiguous range of male identities on the Irish screen

Sexuality, Iconography, and Fiction in French Jason James Hartford, 2018-02-19 This book explores the modern cultural history of the queer martyr in France and Belgium By analyzing how popular writers in French responded to Catholic doctrine and the tradition of St Sebastian in art Queering the Martyr shows how religious and secular symbols overlapped to produce not one but two martyr types These are the queer type typified first by Gustave Flaubert which is a philosophical foil and the gay type popularized by Jean Genet but created by the Belgian Georges Eekhoud which is a political and pornographic device Grounded in feminist queer theory and working from a post psychoanalytical point of view the argument explores the potential and limits of these two figures noting especially the persistence of misogyny in religious culture

From Hegel to Madonna Robert Miklitsch, 1998-02-13 From Hegel to Madonna presents a genealogical survey of the discourses of negation and affirmation associated with the work of Hegel Adorno Deleuze and Guattari then rotating from the philosophical to the political economic axis turns to the problem of a general economy of commodity fetishism Drawing on the work of Marx and Freud Miklitsch mobilizes a new renewed understanding of commodity fetishism what he calls the commodity body sign in order to examine received notions of consumption and commodification The aim is to envision a dialectical mode of critique at once critical and affirmative that can account for the cultural contradictions of late capitalism The author also analyzes the phenomenon of Madonna Studies reading the interest in the pop star as a sign of the academic times a symptomatic figure not only of cultural studies in all its celebratory cultural populist excess but of a critical discourse responsive to postmodern culture in all its politically complex mutability

Imagine Hope Simon Watney, 2002-09-11 Presents a chronological selection of Watney's writings from the 1990s with new contextualising introductory and concluding essays and offers a chronicle of the changing and often confusing course of the epidemic

The B Word Maria San Filippo, 2013-04-12 Often disguised in public discourse by terms like gay homoerotic homosocial or queer bisexuality is strangely absent from queer studies and virtually untreated in film and media criticism Maria San Filippo aims to explore the central role bisexuality plays in contemporary screen culture establishing its importance in representation marketing and spectatorship By examining a variety of media genres including art cinema sexploitation cinema and vampire films bromances and series television San Filippo discovers missed moments where bisexual readings of these texts reveal a more malleable notion of subjectivity and eroticism San Filippo s work moves beyond the subject of heteronormativity and responds to compulsory monosexuality where it s not necessarily a couple s gender that is at issue but rather that an individual chooses one or the other The B Word transcends dominant relational formation gay straight or otherwise and brings a discursive voice to the field of queer and film studies
