Lips, 2005-03 Praeger Guide to the Psychology of Gender Michele A. Paludi, 2004-11-30 When we examine the field of gender psychology closely we note that much of what the popular media tells us about women and men does not hold up to research scrutiny This handbook helps to replace media stereotypes and myths with realities and shows us that there are more similarities between the sexes than differences The contributors to this handbook have a highly practical and readable approach that will prompt readers to examine their self awareness and social tolerance to biases against women and men in our social institutions such as schools and workplaces They also reveal that the increased participation in courses and reading of literature on gender has improved gender role attitudes and behavior causing both sexes to treat each other with more respect and dignity The contributors to this volume focus on gender role development and multicultural issues

throughout the lifecycle They also emphasize the empowerment of both sexes The gender related topics in this handbook include Teacher socialization of girls and boys Women s and men s verbal and nonverbal communication skills Women s and men s voting patterns Sexual violence The gender wage gap Women s and men s friendships and sexual relationships Parents communication of masculinity and femininity to their children

Psychology and Culture Lisa Vaughn,2019-03-05 The increasing globalization of society is causing shifts in social linguistic religious and other cultural differences which may increase the potential for misunderstandings in communication the workplace health care and education The new second edition of Psychology and Culture provides an up to date overview of the cultural dimensions of psychology and the application to everyday settings Vaughn presents a description of how thinking and behaviour are influenced by sociocultural context Areas of focus include the basis of culture research in psychology and culture identity human development intercultural interactions and basic psychological processes The text explores a broader definition of culture which includes social dimensions such as gender religion and socioeconomic status and provides practical models to improve intercultural relations intercultural communication and cultural competency in education organizations relationships and health Written in a reader friendly style the text covers a broad range of topics with numerous examples across cultures to make the content come to life The book covers transdisciplinary content in psychology and culture that will be of interest not only to psychologists interested in cultural issues and to scholars in related disciplines but also to a more general audience seeking information on questions of cultural humility globalization multiple identities social ecological processes immigration acculturation and related topics

Italian American Women, Food, and Identity Andrea L. Dottolo,Carol Dottolo,2018-03-02 This book is about Italian American women food identity and our stories at the table This mother daughter research team explores how Italian American working class women from Syracuse New York use food as a symbol and vehicle which carries multiple meanings In these narratives food represents home loss and longing Food also stands in for race class gender sexuality immigration region place and space The authors highlight how food is about family and tradition as well as choice and change These women s narratives reveal that food is related to celebration love power and shame As this study centers on the intergenerational transmission of culture the authors relationship mirrors these questions as they contend with their similar and disparate experiences and relationships with Italian American identity and food The authors use the recipe as a conversational bridge to elicit narratives about identity and the self They also encourage readers to listen closely to the stories at their own tables to consider how recipes and food are a way for us to claim who we are who we think we are who we want to be and who we are not
