A Raisin In The Sun Thirtieth Anniversary Edition:

A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 1955-04-01 Under the editorship of the late Robert Nemiroff with a provocative and thoughtful introduction by preeminent African American scholar Margaret B Wilkerson and a commentary by Spike Lee this completely restored screenplay is the accurate and authoritative edition of Lorraine Hansberry's script and a testament to her unparalleled accomplishment as a Black artist The 1961 film version of A Raisin in the Sun with a screenplay by the author Lorraine Hansberry won an award at the Cannes Film Festival even though one third of the actual screenplay Hansberry had written had been cut out The film did essentially bring Hansberry's extraordinary play to the screen but it failed to fulfill her cinematic vision Now with this landmark edition of Lorraine Hansberry's original script for the movie of A Raisin in the Sun that audiences never viewed readers have at hand an epic eloquent work capturing not only the life and dreams of a Black family but the Chicago and the society that surround and shape them Important changes in dialogue and exterior shots a stunning shift of focus to her male protagonist and a dramatic rewriting of the final scene show us an artist who understood and used the cinematic medium to transform a stage play into a different art form a profound and powerful film

Black Feminist Thought, 30th Anniversary Edition Patricia Hill Collins, 2022-05-16 In the first major update to this classic book in many years Collins traces the history and contours of Black women's ideas and actions to argue that Black feminist thought is the discourse that fosters Black women's survival persistence and success against the odds Through meticulous research that synthesizes the important intellectual work done by Black women Collins's timely update demonstrates that Black women's ideas and actions are not marginal concerns but rather are central to the future of social justice within democratic societies The combination of the text's classic arguments and a preface and epilogue written expressly for this edition speak to people who have long been working on social justice and to a new generation of readers who are encountering the ideas and actions of Black women for the first time For this 30th year anniversary edition Patricia Hill Collins examines how the ideas in this classic text speak to contemporary social issues and identifies the directions needed for the future of Black feminist thought

Literature for a Society of Equals Daniel S. Malachuk, 2023-09-29 Literature for a Society of Equals defends modern equality and seeks its best literature It accuses equality's supposed friends on the left of attenuating this world redefining relationship into a collection of rights and goods to distribute secularizing it even as the right keeps sacralizing hierarchies and optimistically handing it over to time to make it happen In contrast loyal to equality as modernity's revolutionary invention the writers examined here from Mary Shelley to Gwendolyn Brooks to Ta Nehisi Coates envision relational equality as lately recovered by philosophers like Elizabeth Anderson and historians like Pierre Rosanvallon Literary scholars need to reread these pessimist egalitarians too though for the discipline has failed them in the same three ways i.e. attenuating and secularizing these writers' portraits of equality but most of all insisting the sympathy generated by reading these texts will with enough time expand the circle of humanity For students and teachers of literature at the university level this volume is a guide to those writings that champion equality as relational sacred and ours not time's to realize
