Briefwechsel Zwischen Rahel David German:

The Oxford Handbook of Nineteenth-Century Women Philosophers in the German Tradition Kristin Gjesdal, Dalia Nassar, 2024 This Oxford Handbook celebrates the work of trailblazing women in the history of modern philosophy Through thirty one original chapters it engages with the work of women philosophers spanning the long nineteenth century in the German tradition and covers women s contribution to major philosophical movements including romanticism and idealism socialism and Marxism Nietzscheanism feminism phenomenology and neo Kantianism It opens with a section on figures offering essays focused on fifteen thinkers in this tradition before moving on to sections of essays on movement and topics Across the volume s chapters essays examine women s contributions to key philosophical areas such as epistemology and metaphysics aesthetics ethics social and political philosophy ecology education and the philosophy of nature

Women Writers' Philosophy of Love in German Romanticism Renata T. Fuchs, 2024-07-01 This monograph spotlights women writers contributions to the philosophy of German Romanticism Dorothea Mendelssohn Veit Schlegel Rahel Levin Varnhagen Karoline von G nnderrode and Bettina Brentano von Arnim suggested a new vision for an emancipated community of women that develops through philosophical discourse of Progressive Universal Poetry Their personal fictionalized and literary letters reinvent and retheorize the Romantic notions of sociability symphilosophy and sympoetry as theorized by men and retheorize the concepts of love They provided a model for shaping intellectual and cultural life in the modern world while challenging rigid dichotomies of classs gender and ethnicity

Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings

Jewish Women in Enlightenment Berlin Natalie Naimark-Goldberg, 2016-09-01 The encounter of Jews with the Enlightenment movement has so far been considered almost entirely from a masculine perspective This highly original study based on analysis of the correspondence and literary works of a group of educated Jewish women demonstrates their intellectual proclivities feminine awareness and social activities as well as their attitudes to marriage traditional family frameworks and religion In doing so it makes a significant contribution to German Jewish history as well as to gender studies

Modern Jewish Literatures Sheila E. Jelen, Michael P. Kramer, L. Scott Lerner, 2011-06-06 Is there such a thing as a distinctive Jewish literature While definitions have been offered none has been universally accepted Modern Jewish literature lacks the basic markers of national literatures it has neither a common geography nor a shared language though works in Hebrew or Yiddish are almost certainly included and the field is so diverse that it cannot be contained within the bounds of one literary category Each of the fifteen essays collected in Modern Jewish Literatures takes on the above question by describing a movement across boundaries between languages cultures genres or spaces Works in Hebrew and Yiddish are amply represented but works in English French German Italian Ladino and Russian are also considered Topics range from the poetry of the Israeli nationalist Natan Alterman to the Russian poet Osip Mandelstam from turn of the century Ottoman Jewish journalism to wire recorded Holocaust testimonies from the intellectual salons of late eighteenth century Berlin to the shelves of a Jewish bookstore in twentieth century Los Angeles The literary world described in Modern Jewish Literatures is demarcated chronologically by the Enlightenment the Haskalah and the French Revolution on one end and the fiftieth anniversary of the State of Israel on the other The particular terms of the encounter between a Jewish past and present for modern Jews has varied greatly by continent country or village by language and by social standing among other things What unites the subjects of these studies is not a common ethnic religious or cultural history but rather a shared endeavor to use literary production and writing in general as the laboratory in which to explore and represent Jewish experience in the modern world

Rahel Levin Varnhagen Heidi Thomann Tewarson, Rahel Varnhagen, 1998-01-01 For a woman Rahel Levin Varnhagen 1771 1833 occupied a unique place in German intellectual history Heidi Tewarson gives us a rich account of Varnhagen's intellectual community and her writings which led to her reputation as a leading intellectual of her era a champion of literary figures and movements of human rights and of Enlightenment values 17 illustrations Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era, 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism

The Jew in the Modern World Paul R. Mendes-Flohr, Jehuda Reinharz, 1995 The last two centuries have witnessed a radical transformation of Jewish life Marked by such profound events as the Holocaust and the establishment of the state of Israel Judaism's long journey through the modern age has been a complex and tumultuous one leading many Jews to ask themselves not only where they have been and where they are going but what it means to be a Jew in today's world Tracing the Jewish experience in the modern period and illustrating the transformation of Jewish religion culture and identity from the 17th century to 1948 the updated edition of this critically acclaimed volume of primary materials remains the most complete sourcebook on modern Jewish history Now expanded to supplement the most vital documents of the first edition The Jew in the Modern World features hitherto unpublished and inaccessible sources concerning the Jewish experience in Eastern Europe women in Jewish history American Jewish life the Holocaust and Zionism and the nascent Jewish community in Palestine on the eve of the establishment of the State of Israel The documents are arranged chronologically in each of eleven chapters and are meticulously and extensively annotated and cross referenced in order to provide the student with ready access to a wide variety of issues key historical figures and events Complete with some twenty useful tables detailing Jewish demographic trends this is a unique resource for any course in Jewish history Zionism and Israel the Holocaust or European and American history
