Beyond Methodological Nationalism Anna Amelina, Devrim Sel D. Nergiz, Thomas Faist, Nina Glick Schiller, 2012-05-31
Cross border studies have become attractive for a number of fields including international migration studies of material and cultural globalization and history While cross border studies have expanded the critique on nation centered research lens has also grown This book revisits drawbacks of methodological nationalism in theory and methodological strategies It summarizes research methodologies of the current studies on transnationalization and globalization such as multi scalar and transnational approaches global and multi sited ethnography as well as the entangled history approach and the incorporating comparison approach This collected volume goes beyond rhetorical criticism on methodological nationalism which is mainly associated with the ignorance and naturalization of national categories It proffers insights for the systematic implementation of novel research strategies within empirical studies deployed by young and senior scholars The novelty lies in an interdisciplinary lens ranging from sociology social anthropology and history

Migrants and Literature in Finland and Sweden Satu Gröndahl, Eila Rantonen, 2018-10-26
Migrants and Literature in Finland and Sweden presents new comparative perspectives on transnational literary studies This collection provides a contribution to the production of new narratives of the nation The focus of the contributions is contemporary fiction relating to experiences of migration The volume discusses multicultural writing emerging modes of writing and generic innovations When people are in motion it changes nations cultures and peoples The volume explores the ways in which transcultural connections have affected the national self understanding in the Swedish and Finnish context It also presents comparative aspects on the reception of literary works and explores the intersectional perspectives of identities including class gender ethnicity race and disability Further it also demonstrates the complexity of grouping literatures according to nation and ethnicity The case studies are divided into three chapters II Generational Shifts III Reception and Multicultural Perspectives and IV Writing Migrant Identities The migration of Finnish labourers to Sweden is reflected in Satu Gröndahl's and Kukku Melkas's contributions to this volume the latter also discusses material related to the placing of Finnish war children krigsbarn in Sweden during World War II Migration between Russia and Finland is discussed by Marja Sorvari while Johanna Domokos attempts at mapping the Finnish literary field and offering a model for literary analysis Transformations of the Finnish literary field are also the focus of Hanna Leena Nissil's article discussing the reception of novels by a selection of women authors with an immigrant background The African diaspora and the arrival of refugees to Europe from African countries due to wars and political conflicts in the 1970s is the backdrop of Anne Heith's analysis of migration and literature while Pirjo Ahokas deals with literature related to the experiences of a Korean adoptee in Sweden Migration from Africa to Sweden also forms the setting of Eila Rantonen's article about a novel by a successful Swedish author with roots in Tunisia Exile gender and disability are central intertwined themes of Marta Ronne's article which discusses the work of a Swedish Latvian author who arrived in Sweden in connection to World War II. This collection is of particular interest to students and scholars in literary and Nordic studies as well as transnational and migration studies.

Whose Cosmopolitanism? Nina Glick Schiller, Andrew Irving, 2017-05. The term cosmopolitan is increasingly used within different social, cultural and political settings including academia, popular media and national politics. However, those who invoke the cosmopolitan project rarely ask whose experience, understanding or vision of cosmopolitanism is being described and for whose purposes. In response, this volume assembles contributors from different disciplines and theoretical backgrounds to examine cosmopolitanism's possibilities, aspirations and applications as well as its tensions, contradictions and discontents so as to offer a critical commentary on the vital but often neglected question: whose cosmopolitanism? The book investigates when, where and how cosmopolitanism emerges as a contemporary social process: global aspiration or emancipatory political project? and asks whether it can serve as a political or methodological framework for action in a world of conflict and difference.

Onward Migration and Multi-Sited Transnationalism Jill Ahrens, Russell King, 2022-10-17. This open access book brings novel perspectives to the scholarship on transnational migration. The book stresses the complexity of migration trajectories and proposes multi-sited field studies to capture this complexity. Its constituent chapters offer examples of onward migration spanning all major world regions. The contents exemplify a range of interdisciplinary approaches including both qualitative and quantitative methodologies. The result is an impressive remapping and reconceptualisation of global migration and mobility of interest to students and policy makers alike.

Aging within Transnational Families Vincent Horn, 2019-03-15. Aging within Transnational Families is the first book to provide a multi-method approach to studying aging across borders. By asking how, why and to what extent do older Peruvians engage in transnational family ties and practices, the book enhances our knowledge about aging across borders. Drawing on the care circulation framework and the capacity and desire approach, it explores the motivations of older Peruvians' transnational involvement as well as the factors influencing the scope and propensity of their cross-border practices. From a lifecourse perspective, the book asks how age relates to older Peruvian migrants' integration into the host society and engagement in the sending of remittances and visits of family members in Peru. Exploring the prevalence and structuring features of family-related transnational practices against the backdrop of different migration regimes, Aging within Transnational Families shows how policies affect transnational family configurations and the role of older people within them.

Transnationalizing Inequalities in Europe Anna Amelina, 2016-09-13. Unequal life chances became a key feature of cross-border migration to and within the enlarged Europe. Combining transnational, intersectional and cultural sociological perspectives, this book develops a conceptual tool to analyse patterns, contexts and mechanisms of these cross-border inequalities. This book synthesizes the theories of social boundaries and of intersectionality, approaching cross-border relations as socially generated and as an inherent element of contemporary social inequalities. It analyses the mechanisms of cross border inequalities as regimes of intersection relating spatialized cross border inequalities to other types of unequal social relations in terms of gender ethnicity race class etc The conceptual arguments are supported by empirical research on cross border migration in Europe migration of scientists and care workers between Ukraine and Germany This book integrates the analysis of space including cross border categories of global and transnational into intersectionally informed studies of social inequalities Broadly it will appeal to scholars and students in the areas of sociology political sciences social anthropology and social geography In particular it will interest researchers concerned with transnational and global social inequalities the interplay of the categories gender ethnicity and class on the one hand and global and transnational relations on the other theories of space and society and migration and mobility in Europe Political Parties Abroad Tudi

Kernalegenn, Emilie van Haute, 2020-02-24 This book analyzes parties beyond the national borders and their increasing institutionalization abroad in order to understand their development their organizational specificities their functions and their impact on the party system and national politics at home With 12 contrasted case studies it comparatively addresses a wide range of perspectives on political parties abroad and lays the foundation for a framework of analysis of political parties abroad contributing to a better understanding of transnationalism and long distance democracy The generalization of overseas voting and the development of representative institutions for emigrants has transformed the civic and political links between states and their diaspora This has also created new opportunities for political parties with the task to reach out to citizens living abroad mobilize them for elections and even organize their representation at home This book represents the first in depth study of an emerging phenomenon This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of political parties party politics immigration and more broadly to democracy studies and comparative politics Heimat and Migration Josef

Stuart Len Cagle, Thomas Herold, Gabriele Maier, 2023-02-20 Discourses of Heimat and of migration both negotiate questions of identity belonging and integration moreover despite the reemergence of right wing racist and exclusionary uses of the term Heimat there are in fact more recent German language cultural texts that problematize and challenge a view of Heimat as a community that excludes the Other than there are promulgating it This volume addresses the parallel proliferation of discourses of Heimat and of migration in contemporary German language culture and demonstrates that the entanglement of migration and Heimat can be productive it can help us to reframe what it means to have a home to lose one find one or belong to one Dislocations of Civic Cultural Borderlines Pirkkoliisa Ahponen, Päivi Harinen, Ville-Samuli

Haverinen, 2015-11-12 This book examines changes of citizenship in the light of dislocated habitations It highlights the ways in which the membership in a local community is shifting away from national frameworks and explores the dislocations brought about by transnational and cosmopolitan forms of belonging Containing theoretical methodological and political contributions the volume takes part in the social political and cultural discussion around migration transnationalism multiculturalism multiple citizenship and cosmopolitan civic activities It presents dislocation as a covering concept and a metaphor for describing circumstances in which the conventional ways and frames of conducting social scientific analysis social policies or politics no longer suffice The book shows how scientific and political projects educational curricula and policy institutions still lean mainly on the logics of mono cultural nation states and citizenships without recognizing the dislocated nature of contemporary citizenship and civil society Offering solutions the book proposes new ways of collecting data and conducting analyses explains the new logics of citizenship and civic activities and offers tools for developing civic and citizenship policies that consider the transnational reality of people s everyday lives and life histories

Bracketed Belonging Kelvin E. Y. Low, 2025-07-15 Bracketed Belonging addresses how nations and their governance of security determine social constellations and shape socio political and legal assertions of belonging and allegiance Kelvin E Y Low examines the contours and limits of belonging that underlie the complex social contract between mobile migrants and nations in the context of a global military security market He explores these core themes through the case of Nepali Gurkhas and their families as military and paramilitary migrants Recruited to serve in the military or police force Gurkhas are trained in jungle warfare skills that other police groups do not possess There is thus the professional link to military training and the formation of a unique paramilitary police force with the backdrop of colonialism In these contexts this book offers fresh perspectives on studying global security migration and diasporic lives It sets a new agenda by analytically bridging empire military and security maneuvers and migratory pathways and options In doing so Bracketed Belonging serves as a novel contribution to current scholarship on migration and transnationalism and on police and security studies
