Autocrats and Academics James C. McClelland, 1979 Between Tsar and People Edith W. Clowes, Samuel D. Kassow, James L. West, 1991-03-21 This interdisciplinary collection of essays on the social and cultural life of late imperial Russia describes the struggle of new elites to take up a middle position in society between tsar and people During this period autonomous social and cultural institutions pluralistic political life and a dynamic economy all seemed to be emerging Russia was experiencing a sense of social possibility akin to that which Gorbachev wishes to reanimate in the Soviet Union But then as now diversity had as its price the potential for political disorder and social dissolution Analyzing the attempt of educated Russians to forge new identities this book reveals the social cultural and regional fragmentation of the times The contributors are Harley Balzer John E Bowlt Joseph Bradley William C Brumfield Edith W Clowes James M Curtis Ben Eklof Gregory L Freeze Abbott Gleason Samuel D Kassow Mary Louise Loe Louise McReynolds Sidney Monas John O Norman Daniel T Orlovsky Thomas C Owen Alfred Rieber Bernice G Rosenthal Christine Ruane Charles E Timberlake William Wagner and James L West Samuel D Kassow has written a conclusion to the volume Students, Professors, and the State in Tsarist Russia Samuel D. Kassow, 1989-01-01 The first systematic and exhaustive study of one of the most important social and political developments in pre October Russia It ranks among the best studies in modern Russian history Alexander Vucinich author of Empire of Knowledge and Darwin in Russian Thought Cultivating Nationhood in Imperial Russia Lisa Khachaturian, 2018-02-06 Nineteenth century Armenia was a zone of competition between the Persian Ottoman and the Russian Empires Yet over the course of the century a new generation of Armenian journalists scholars and writers worked to transform their geographically socially and linguistically fragmented communities threatened by regional isolation and dissent into a patriotic and nationally conscious population Lisa Khachaturian seeks to explain how this profoundly divided society managed to achieve a common cultural bond The national project that captivated nineteenth century Eastern Armenian intellectuals was a daunting task especially since their efforts were directed in the Caucasus a territory known for its volatile history its ethnic heterogeneity and its linguistic complexity Although this cultural and social maelstrom was both aggravated and tempered by the new Russian arena of economic growth urban development and heightened technology and communication diversity was hardly a recent phenomenon in the region it had been an endemic part of Caucasian history for centuries Armenians were no exception to this While the Georgians bound to their landed nobility generally lived within kingdoms the Armenians experienced centuries of forced resettlement migration and centuries of habitation among other peoples Some Armenians had settled in faraway countries but many remained in scattered colonies within the boundaries of historic Armenia This is a study of the formation of modern Armenian national consciousness under Imperial Russian rule The Tsarist acquisition of Armenian populated territory and consequent efforts to integrate this territory into the empire imposed sufficient unity to provide a basis for a nascent national movement The particular influences of Russian imperial rule met the

Eastern Armenian communities to create a new environment for a modern national revival This book reviews how nineteenth century Armenian intellectuals discussed and conceived of the nation through the formation of the Armenian press This is a rare blend of national culture and communication networking
