Beeld En Geschiedenis Het Belgische En Vlaamse Verleden In De Romantische Boekillustraties:

The Oxford History of Historical Writing: 1800-1945 Daniel R. Woolf, Andrew Feldherr, Grant Hardy, Ian Hesketh, 2011 A chronological scholarly survey of the history of historical writing in five volumes Each volume covers a particular period of time from the beginning of writing to the present day and from all over the world

The Historical Imagination in Nineteenth-Century Britain and the Low Countries, 2012-11-01 The nineteenth century laid the foundations of history as a professional discipline but also popularized and romanticized the subject National histories were written and state museums founded while collective memories were created in fiction and drama art and architecture and through the growth of tourism and the emergence of a heritage industry The authors of this collection compare Britain the Netherlands and Belgium unearthing the ways in which history was conceived and then utilized They conclude that although nationalistic historicism ruled in all genres the interaction of the nineteenth century with its imagined past was far richer and more complex both across national borders and within them Contributors include Niek van Sas Andrew Mycock Marnix Beyen Ellinoor Bergvelt Joep Leerssen Joanne Parker Anna Vaninskaya Jenny Graham Tom Verschaffel Saartje Vanden Borre Hugh Dunthorne and Michael Wintle

National Identity and Nineteenth-Century Franco-Belgian Sculpture Jana Wijnsouw, 2017-09-27 This book elaborates on the social and cultural phenomenon of national schools during the nineteenth century via the less studied field of sculpture and using Belgium as a case study The role importance of and emphasis on certain aspects of national identity evolved throughout the century while a diverse array of criteria were indicated by commissioners art critics or artists that supposedly constituted a national sculpture By confronting the role and impact of the four most crucial actors within the artistic field politics education exhibitions public commissions with a linear timeframe this book offers a chronological as well as a thematic approach Artists covered include Guillaume Geefs Eugène Simonis Charles Van der Stappen Julien Dillens Paul Devigne Constantin Meunier and George Minne

The Everyday Nationalism of Workers Maarten Van Ginderachter, 2019-07-23 The Everyday Nationalism of Workers upends common notions about how European nationalism is lived and experienced by ordinary people and the bottom up impact these everyday expressions of nationalism exert on institutionalized nationalism writ large Drawing on sources from the major urban and working class centers of Belgium Maarten Van Ginderachter uncovers the everyday nationalism of the rank and file of the socialist Belgian Workers Party between 1880 and World War I a period in which Europe experienced the concurrent rise of nationalism and socialism as mass movements Analyzing sources from not just about ordinary workers Van Ginderachter reveals the limits of nation building from above and the potential of agency from below With a rich and diverse base of sources including workers propaganda pence ads that reveal a Twitter like transcript of proletarian consciousness the book shows all the complexity of socialist workers ambivalent engagement with nationhood patriotism ethnicity and language By comparing the Belgian case with the rise of nationalism across Europe Van Ginderachter sheds new light on how multilingual societies fared in the age of mass politics and ethnic nationalism Writing and Rewriting National Theatre Histories S.E. Wilmer, 2009-11 Historians of theatre face the same temptations and challenges as other historians they negotiate assumptions their own and those of others about national identity and national character they decide what events and actors to highlight or omit and what framework and perspective to use for telling the story Personal biases trends in scholarship and sociopolitical contexts influence all histories and theatre histories too are often revised to reflect changing times and interests This significant collection examines the problems and challenges of formulating national theatre histories The essayists included here leading theatre scholars from all over the world many of whom wrote essays specifically for this volume provide an international context for national theatre histories as well as studies of individual nations They cover a wide geographical area Asia the Middle East Africa Europe and North America The essays contrast large countries India Indonesia with small Ireland newly independent Slovenia with established U S A developed Canada with developing Mexico South Africa capitalist U S A with formerly communist Russia monolingual Sweden with multilingual Belgium Canada and countries with stable historical boundaries Sweden with those whose borders have shifted Germany The essays also explore such sociopolitical issues as the polarization of language groups the importance of religion the invisibility of ethnic minorities the redrawing of geographical borders changes in ideology and the dismantling of colonial legacies Finally they examine such common problems of history writing as types of evidence periodization canonization styles of narrative and definitions of key terms Writing and Rewriting National Theatre Histories will be of special interest to students and scholars of theatre cultural studies and historiography

The Uses of the Middle Ages in Modern European States R. Evans, G. Marchal, 2010-12-20 An assessment of the role of the Middle Ages in national historiography and in modern conceptions of national identity looking at relatively young nations and regions which claim national traditions but were slow to achieve or regain separate statehood Examples range from Ireland and Iceland through Austria and Italy to Finland and Greece Het labyrint van het verleden Evert Peeters, 2003

Drawn from Life Murray Jonathan Murray, 2018-11-14 Documentary cinema has always drawn from real life but an increasing number of contemporary filmmakers are going further still drawing onscreen images of reality through a range of animated filmmaking techniques Drawn from Life is the first book to explore the field of animated documentaries from a diverse range of scholarly and practice based perspectives exploring and proposing answers to a range of questions that preoccupy twenty first century film artists and audiences alike Why use animation to document How do such images reflect and influence our understanding and experience of reality whether public or private psychological or political From early cinema to present day scientific research military uses digital art and gaming this book casts new light on the capacity of the moving image to act as a record of the world around us challenging the orthodox definitions of documentary cinema

Imagology Manfred Beller, Joseph Theodoor Leerssen, 2007 How do national stereotypes emerge To which extent are they determined by historical or ideological circumstances or else by cultural literary or discursive conventions This first inclusive critical compendium on national characterizations and national cultural or ethnic stereotypes contains 120 articles by 73 contributors Its three parts offer 1 a number of in depth survey articles on ethnic and national images in European literatures and cultures over many centuries 2 an encyclopedic survey of the stereotypes and characterizations traditionally ascribed to various ethnicities and nationalities and 3 a conspectus of relevant concepts in various cultural fields and scholarly disciplines The volume as a whole as well as each of the articles has extensive bibliographies for further critical reading Imagology is intended both for students and for senior scholars facilitating not only a first acquaintance with the historical development typology and poetics of national stereotypes but also a deepening of our understanding and analytical perspective by interdisciplinary and comparative contextualization and extensive cross referencing Lipsius en Leuven Gilbert Tournoy, Jan Papy, Jeanine Landtsheer, Katholieke Universiteit te Leuven (1970-).
