Before The Echo Essays On Nature Corrie Herring Hooks:

Before the Echo Pete Dunne, 1995 The natural world is a lot like a game of musical chairs observes Pete Dunne Everywhere you turn everywhere you go there are places where living things sit down niches that support their specific needs But just as in musical chairs there aren't enough places to go around Our species keeps removing them forcing other creatures to leave the game In these twenty nine essays one of America's top nature writers trains his sights on the beauties and the vulnerabilities of the natural world Writing to infuse others with a sense of the richness and diversity that nature holds Pete Dunne ranges over topics from the wonder of the year's first snowfall to the lost art of stargazing to the mysterious forces that impel people to hunt and not to hunt Running like a thread through all the essays is Dunne's desire to preserve all that is natural in nature to stop our unthinking destruction of wild places and wild creatures before we humans find ourselves with the last chair in an empty room on an impoverished earth Small-headed Flycatcher. Seen

Yesterday. He Didn't Leave His Name. Pete Dunne, 1998 Pete Dunne has been watching birds since he was seven years old But not just watching deeply absorbing every nuance of color markings shape flight and song all the subtle clues that can identify a bird barely glimpsed among the highest branches in fading twilight With the same skill he has been observing and writing about birding and birders for over twenty years using humor sentiment occasional sarcasm and unashamed passion for his chosen profession to explore why birdwatching is so irresistibly compelling to so many people This book brings together thirty two vintage essays that Dunne originally wrote for publications such as American Birds Bird Watcher's Digest Birder's World Birding Living Bird the New Jersey edition of the Sunday New York Times WildBird and Wild Bird News Encounters with birds rare and common is their shared theme through which Dunne weaves stories of his family and friends reflections on the cycles of nature and portraits of unforgettable birders whose paths have crossed his ranging from Roger Tory Peterson to a life battered friend who finds solace in birding A cliff hanger story of the bird that got away gives this book its title American Book Publishing Record, 1995 Golden Wings and Other Stories about Birders and

Birding Pete Dunne, 2003-04-01 Dubbed the Bard of America's Bird Watchers by the Wall Street Journal Pete Dunne knows birders and birding instinctively and completely He understands the compulsion that drives other birders to go out at first light whatever the weather for a chance to maybe just maybe glimpse that rare migrant that someone might have spotted in a patch of woods the day before yesterday And yet he also knows how well strange the birding obsession becomes when viewed through the eyes of a nonbirder His dual perspective totally engrossed in birding yet still aware of the odd birdness of some birders makes reading his essays a pure pleasure whether you pursue the feather quest or not This book collects forty one of Dunne's recent essays drawn from his columns in Living Bird Wild Bird News the New Jersey Sunday section of the New York Times Birder's World and other publications Written with his signature wit and insight they cover everything from a moment of awed communion with a Wandering Albatross the most beautiful thing I'd ever seen to Dunne's imagined perfect bird The Perfect Bird is the size of a turkey has the wingspan of an eagle the legs of a crane the feet of a moorhen and the talons of a great horned owl It eats kudzu surplus zucchini feral cats and has been known to predate upon homeowners who fire up their lawn mowers before 7 00 A M on the weekend The title essay pays whimsical yet heartfelt tribute to Dunne s mentor the late birding legend Roger Tory Peterson The Zoological Record ,1996 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991

New Generation Guide to the Birds of Britain and Europe Christopher M. Perrins,1987 An Essay Towards a Natural History of the Herring ,1755 An Essay Toward a Natural History of the Herring James Solas Dodd,1752
