Gary M. Kenyon, James E. Birren, Jan-Erik Ruth, Johannes J.F. Schroots, Torbjorn Svensson, 2004-01-01 Personal life narratives can serve as a rich source of new insights into the experience of human aging In this comprehensive volume an international team of editors and contributors provide effective approaches to using biography to enhance our understanding of adult development In addition to providing new theoretical aspects on aging and biography the book also details new developments concerning the practical use of different biographical approaches in both research and clinical work This is a landmark volume advancing the use of narrative approaches in gerontology Helping Teachers Develop Sara Bubb, 2005-09-20 Helping Teachers Develop is a positive uplifting encouraging publication very good value for money It is the sort of publication we need in the profession and it is well worth being part of every head teacher or staff development tutor's collection of really useful books I have to confess even before I had finished reading it for review I was using Helping Teachers Develop with my trainee teachers Peter Stammers in the Journal of In-service Education The book explores ways teachers at all levels can mentor others and improve their careers It also contains guidance on ways to cope with having your lessons observed and how to make constructive comments as an observer Michael Shaw Times Educational Supplement This is another excellent and accessible practice guide from someone who unusually understands both the classroom teacher from long years of practice and the theory The chapter on observation of teachers should be read by every headteacher deputy and teacher who engages in monitoring classroom practice Note a few inspectors would benefit too It's one to read and then refer to on a regular basis if you work in schools or PGCE departments Tim Brighouse Chief Adviser for London Schools Helping teachers develop whether they're trainees newly or recently qualified in their first three ten or twenty years and whether they are superb or struggling is vital for the profession for the millions of children who will learn more as a result. Schools have to take greater responsibility for staff's continuing professional development (CPD) but there is little real help for the people who develop teachers. The best teachers will be expected to mentor trainee and newly qualified teachers (NQTs) and share good practice with all colleagues. Drawing directly on real life experience and the latest research, this book will help people in a mentoring, coaching, advisory or management role to develop teachers through understanding adult learning and the CPD cycle, to meet needs from the range of professional development activities, to carry out observations and give oral and written feedback in a range of situations, to help and monitor planning and other parts of the job, to help teachers develop their careers. Using examples from current practice, Sara will take you through every stage of CPD from what professional development is to how you can support and monitor staff in your own school. There are photocopiable materials for you to use. The guidance in this book will be essential for mentors, induction tutors, CPD staff, development coordinators, people with advanced skills or excellent teacher status and all those with a leadership and management role in schools or local authorities. Sara Bubb is the UK's leading induction expert and has vast expertise in the CPD field. She runs many courses for different levels of school staff, assesses trainee and advanced skills teachers and is the new teacher expert for the Times Educational Supplement. Sara has been seconded from the Institute of Education to the DfES as the consultant for the Chartered London Teacher initiative. She is the co-author with Peter Earley of Leading and Managing Continuing Professional Development and Managing Teacher Workload.

Writing Autobiographies Jennifer R. Terry, Jennifer Terry, Ph., 1998. Inspire, motivate and challenge students to write about what interests them most themselves. Helps teachers guide students through the five steps of the writing process as they write about their own interests and experiences such as their best friends, heroes, their family, their favorite music, food, movies, their goals and dreams and much more. Using the reproducible draft and final worksheets, students learn how to research, write drafts, edit their own and each other's work and complete finished products worthy of publication.

Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Susan Hynds, Jeffrey Wilhelm, 2013-08-21. This text for pre-service and in-service English education courses presents current methods of teaching literature to middle and high school students. The methods are based on social constructivist, socio-cultural theories of literacy learning and incorporate research on literary response conducted by the authors. Teaching Literature to Adolescents is a totally new text that draws on ideas from the best-selling textbook Teaching Literature in the Secondary School by Beach and Marshall, reflects and builds on recent key developments in theory and practice in the field, including the importance of providing students with a range of critical lenses for analyzing texts and interrogating the beliefs, attitudes and ideological perspectives encountered in literature, organization of the literature curriculum around topics, themes or issues, infusion of multicultural literature and emphasis on how writers portray race, class and gender differences, use of drama as a tool for enhancing understanding of texts, employment of a range of different ways to write about literature, integration of critical analysis of film and media texts with the study of literature blending of quality young adult literature into the curriculum and attention to students who have difficulty succeeding in literature classes due to reading difficulties disparities between school and home cultures attitudes toward school English or lack of engagement with assigned texts or response activities The interactive Web site contains recommended readings resources and activities links to Web sites and PowerPoint presentations and opportunities for readers to contribute teaching units to the Web site databases Instructors and students in middle and high school English methods courses will appreciate the clear engaging useful integration of theory methods and pedagogical features offered in this text     The Complete Idiot's Guide to Writing a Memoir Victoria
