New Mexico and the Pimería Alta John G. Douglass, William Graves, 2017-03-01 Focusing on the two major areas of the Southwest that witnessed the most intensive and sustained colonial encounters New Mexico and the Pimería Alta compares how different forms of colonialism and indigenous political economies resulted in diverse outcomes for colonists and Native peoples Taking a holistic approach and studying both colonist and indigenous perspectives through archaeological ethnohistoric historic and landscape data contributors examine how the processes of colonialism played out in the American Southwest Although these broad areas New Mexico and southern Arizona northern Sonora share a similar early colonial history the particular combination of players sociohistorical trajectories and social relations within each area led to and were transformed by markedly diverse colonial encounters Understanding these different mixes of players history and social relations provides the foundation for conceptualizing the enormous changes wrought by colonialism throughout the region The presentations of different cultural trajectories also offer important avenues for future thought and discussion on the strategies for missionization and colonialism The case studies tackle how cultures evolved in the light of radical transformations in cultural traits or traditions and how different groups reconciled to this change A much needed up to date examination of the colonial era in the Southwest New Mexico and the Pimería Alta demonstrates the intertwined relationships between cultural continuity and transformation during a time of immense change and highlights contemporary thought on the colonial experience Contributors Joseph Aguilar Jimmy Arterberry Heather Atherton Dale Brenneman J Andrew Darling John G Douglass B Sunday Eiselt Severin Fowles William M Graves Lauren Jelinek Kelly L Jenks Stewart B Koyiyumptewa Phillip O Leckman Matthew Liebmann Kent G Lightfoot Lindsay Montgomery Barnett Pavao Zuckerman Robert Preucel Matthew Schmader Thomas E Sheridan Colleen Strawhacker J Homer Thiel David Hurst Thomas Laurie D Webster
