Barnes And Noble Movies:

In Love with Movies Daniel Talbot, 2022-04-13 All that I do is go out and look at films and choose the ones I want to play films that stimulate and give some insight into our lives I hope that people will come but if they don't that's okay too Daniel Talbot changed the way the Upper West Side and art house audiences around the world went to the movies In Love with Movies is his memoir of a rich life as the impresario of the legendary Manhattan theaters he owned and operated and as a highly influential film distributor Talbot and his wife Toby opened the New Yorker Theater in 1960 cultivating a loyal audience of film buffs and cinephiles He went on to run several theaters including Lincoln Plaza Cinemas as well as the distribution company New Yorker Films shaping the sensibilities of generations of moviegoers The Talbots introduced American audiences to cutting edge foreign and independent filmmaking including the French New Wave and New German Cinema In this lively personal history of a bygone age of film exhibition Talbot relates how he discovered and selected films including future classics such as Before the Revolution Shoah My Dinner with Andre and The Marriage of Maria Braun He reminisces about leading world directors such as Semb ne Godard Fassbinder Wenders Varda and Kiarostami as well as industry colleagues with whom he made deals on a slip of paper or a handshake In Love with Movies is an intimate portrait of a tastemaker who was willing to take risks It not only lays out the nuts and bolts of running a theater but also tells the story of a young cineophile who turned his passion into a vibrant cultural community Movie Roadshows Kim R.

Holston, 2013-01-01 This work examines a film distribution system paralleling the rise of early features and persisting until 1972 when Man of La Mancha was the final roadshow to require reserved seating Synonymous with Hollywood's star studded premieres roadshows were longer and cost more than regular features making the experience similar to attending the legitimate theater Roadshows often epic in subject matter played selected usually only one theaters in major urban centers until demand decreased De rigueur by the 1960s were musical overtures intermissions entre acte and exit music and souvenir programs for sale in the lobby Throughout the text are recollections by people who attended roadshows including actor John Kerr and actresses Barbara Eden and Ingrid Pitt The focus is on roadshows released in the United States but an appendix identifies international roadshows and films forecast but not released as roadshows Included are plots contemporary critical reaction premiere dates production background and methods of promotion i.e. the ballyhoo Ingmar Bergman Jerry Vermilye, 2015-09-02 He always is very very close to the camera and he is terribly inspiring I don't know what his magic is but it is something that makes you want to give everything you have He has respect for actors and for everybody A bad director very often doesn't have that respect Liv Ullman's words about Ingmar Bergman hint at the consummate director he was one who knew the business the strengths and weaknesses of actors and crews the arrangement of the set the framing of the camera and all other particulars of the fine art of directing This work presents Bergman's life and work beginning with his youth in Uppsala Sweden and covering his formative years his development as an artist and his career as a world renowned director A brief synopsis for each of Bergman s films is provided with such information as producer screenwriter cinematographer editor art director music sound credits running time casts Bergman s own comments and the reactions of critics
