Animal Vegetable Miracle Our Year Of Seasonal Eating:

Animal, Vegetable, Miracle Barbara Kingsolver, Camille Kingsolver, Steven L. Hopp, 2009-10-13 Bestselling author Barbara Kingsolver returns with her first nonfiction narrative that will open your eyes in a hundred new ways to an old truth You are what you eat As the U S population made an unprecedented mad dash for the Sun Belt one carload of us paddled against the tide heading for the Promised Land where water falls from the sky and green stuff grows all around We were about to begin the adventure of realigning our lives with our food chain Naturally our first stop was to buy junk food and fossil fuel Hang on for the ride With characteristic poetry and pluck Barbara Kingsolver and her family sweep readers along on their journey away from the industrial food pipeline to a rural life in which they vow to buy only food raised in their own neighborhood grow it themselves or learn to live without it Their good humored search yields surprising discoveries about turkey sex life and overly zealous zucchini plants en route to a food culture that s better for the neighborhood and also better on the table Part memoir part journalistic investigation Animal Vegetable Miracle makes a passionate case for putting the kitchen back at the center of family life and diversified farms at the center of the American diet This is the story of a year in which we made every attempt to feed ourselves animals and vegetables whose provenance we really knew and of how our family was changed by our first year of deliberately eating food produced from the same place where we worked went to school loved our neighbors drank the water and breathed the air Includes an excerpt from Flight Behavior Covid-19 in India, Disease, Health and Culture Anindita Chatterjee, Nilanjana Chatterjee, 2022-09-22 This book is a cultural exploration of health and wellness with a focus on impacts of Covid 19 on the population of India The chapters in this book present original research systematic reviews theoretical and conceptual frameworks encompassing multidisciplinary inter and intra disciplinary fields of study in the context of how culture and disease sufficiently unpack and inform each other The book includes contributions from the social sciences and the humanities and analyses issues that range from smallpox to the history of vaccine indigenous healing practices the Macbeth paradigm Zizekian encounters mental asylum and marginalised genders Using the theme of intellectual interconnectedness in the times of self isolation and social distancing the book is a collaboration of critical thinkers who identify and visibilize the hidden global issues related to disease and health that have divided the world into narrow binaries individual society poor rich proletariat bourgeoisie margin centre colonised coloniser servitude liberty powerless powerful By doing so the book emphasises the potential of holistic wellness to improve human life and humanity across the globe A novel contribution on the cultural factors that played an important role in contemporary times of Covid 19 this book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of Cultural Studies Health and Society and South Asian Studies The Art of Global Peacebuilding and Excellence in Education Angie Kotler, Jo Westbrook, 2025-03-31 This seminal volume juxtaposes and interrogates established definitions of peacebuilding and excellence in diverse education settings including in conflict and assesses how they might work together in international educational contexts Showcasing in depth case studies from Rwanda Ethiopia Liberia and the UK chapters tackle issues of global significance such as identity conflict decolonisation and climate justice fusing empirical research outcomes with practical examples Each chapter argues for the central role of peacebuilding in defining excellence in education demonstrating context specific cognitive affective and relational strands of learning and teaching Ultimately challenging contemporary thinking and educational theory in an accessible practitioner focused way this book demonstrates how imaginative and reflective practice in diverse contexts can lead to the educational transformation required for the world s current and future challenges This book will inspire educators researchers and policymakers involved with education policy and politics citizenship education and teacher education and development to work towards change both within classrooms and at the systems level so that education can contribute to peacebuilding through new definitions of excellence Eco-Literature and Environmental Advocacy Nasser Dasht Peyma,

From Silo to Spoon Paul B. Thompson,2023-11-02 Paul B Thompson addresses ethical issues in food ads local diets food labeling agricultural pollutants and sustainability in five new essays that pick up where his book From Field to Fork left off Thompson places his examination of the issues into the context of contemporary pragmatism agrarianism the philosophy of race and the relationship between persuasive speech social control and open ended ethical inquiry The Globalization of God Dara Molloy,2015-11-10 Roman Catholicism was the first multinational corporation Preaching was the forerunner of advertising Roman Catholicism created the template for the spread of commercial globalisation through multinational corporations For global Christianity to succeed all local expressions of Christianity had to be suppressed These included Celtic Christianity For 800 years the Roman church tried to break the independent spirit of Celtic Christianity Despite being defeated in 1014 at the Battle of Clontarf the Irish Vikings through their urban bishops were key actors in the imposition of Roman episcopal structures of church throughout Ireland in the 12th century There was an invasion of Norman monks to Ireland which began in 1142 twenty five years before the military invasion in 1167 The ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland meant that a Roman episcopal and diocesan structure replaced the Celtic monastic structure Norman colonisers destroyed Celtic monasteries and replaced them with imported European religious orders Cistercian monasteries in Ireland were required to have French abbots and sometimes these were imposed by force no Irishman was allowed to become a bishop or attain any ecclesiastical high office St Malachy of Armagh betrayed his own Celtic heritage and was a key figure in bringing about the ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland Monotheism is the mythical container for globalization Humans will fail to return to a sustainable way of living on this planet until the mythological container of monotheism is replaced by new bioregional spiritualities that go beyond both monotheism and polytheism The Fire Dogs of Climate Change Sally Andrew,2010-09 The intention of this portfolio of creative essays real life success stories and hard hitting facts about global warming is to investigate the emotional and spiritual components of humankind s relationship to the world By making a connection between the states of heart and mind and the ability to act the inner fire dogs the guardians and watchdogs of the earth are awakened especially in those who do not specialize in activism or environmental concerns Through the stories focus on hope and positive action urgent climate change issues are easily accessible making this collection also ideal for organizations conferences and government groups looking for ways to inspire educate and take effective action
