Green Fiscal Reform for a Sustainable Future Natalie P. Stoianoff, Larry Kreiser, Bill Butcher, Janet E. Milne, Hope Ashiabor, 2016-08-26 This timely book focuses on achieving a sustainable future through the reform of green fiscal policy Green fiscal policies help not only provide the needed financing but may also serve the Sustainable Development Goals adopted by the United Nations in 2015 In this volume environmental tax experts review the development of fiscal carbon policy consider the impact of green taxation on trade and competition analyse the lessons learned from national experiences with fuel and energy pricing and evaluate a variety of green economic instruments

The Global Environment Regina S. Axelrod, Stacy D. VanDeveer, 2014-02-25 The new edition of Regina S Axelrod and Stacy D VanDeveer's award winning volume The Global Environment Institutions Law and Policy reflects the latest events in global environmental politics and sustainable development while providing balanced coverage of the key institutions issues laws and policies The volume has been reorganized to better highlight global environmental institutions major state and non state actors and includes an expanded set of cases such as climate change biodiversity hazardous chemicals ozone layer depletion nuclear energy and resource consumption Based on reviewer feedback the new edition broadens coverage of the growing global environmental agenda and explores the relationships between states NGOs and international organizations

The Role of International Environmental Law in Disaster Risk Reduction Jacqueline Peel, David Fisher, 2016-09-23 In The Role of International Environmental Law in Disaster Risk Reduction edited by Jacqueline Peel and David Fisher expert authors from four continents offer perspectives on the growing intersection between environmental law and disaster risk management Chapters discuss the potential for retasking environmental law tools and principles for purposes of mitigating the harms of potential disasters including those exacerbated by climate change and approaches for linking institutions and approaches across the environmental climate adaptation and disaster risk management fields internationally This book illustrates the blurring distinction between natural and manmade disasters and the consequences for legal norms and practice in the formerly distinct areas of international environmental law and international disaster law

The Impact of Climate Change Mitigation on Indigenous and Forest Communities Maureen F. Tehan, Lee C. Godden, Margaret A. Young, Kirsty A. Gover, 2017-10-26 The international legal framework for valuing the carbon stored in forests known as Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation REDD will have a major impact on indigenous peoples and forest communities The REDD regime contains many assumptions about the identity tenure and rights of indigenous and local communities who inhabit use or claim rights to forested lands The authors bring together expert analysis of public international law climate change treaties property law human rights and indigenous customary land tenure to provide a systemic account of the laws governing forest carbon sequestration and their interaction Their work covers recent developments in climate change law including the Agreement from the Conference of the Parties in Paris that came into force in 2016 The Impact of Climate Change Mitigation on Indigenous and Forest Communities is a rich and much needed new contribution to contemporary understanding of this topic Transboundary Pollution S. Jayakumar, Tommy Koh, Robert Beckman, Hao Duy Phan, 2015-05-29 This important new book provides a comprehensive overview of the international legal principles governing transboundary pollution In doing so the experts writing in this book examine the practical applications of the State responsibility doctrine in Climate, Energy and Water Jamie Pittock, Karen Hussey, Stephen Dovers, 2015-03-19 With the global population expected to reach nine billion by 2050 our capacity to provide enough food water and energy relies on our understanding and management of the complex interdependencies in the climate energy water nexus This book presents a comprehensive and up to date analysis of the interdependencies between these sectors and the knock on consequences of those interactions for other sectors such as food production and biodiversity conservation The interdisciplinary nature of the book across the three sectors of climate energy and water means that it will be valuable for advanced students researchers and policymakers across a broad range of fields including environmental energy water climate policy environmental economics climate science hydrology ecology and geography The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Environmental Law Emma Lees, Jorge E. Viñuales, 2019-05-06 This Handbook is the first comprehensive account of comparative environmental law It examines in detail the methodological foundations of the discipline as well as the substance of environmental law across countries from four vantage points country studies from all continents responses to common problems including air pollution water management nature conservation genetically modified organisms climate change and energy chemicals waste foundational components of environmental law systems including principles property rights administrative and judicial organisation command and control regulation market mechanisms informational techniques and liability mechanisms and common interactions of environmental protection with the broader public private and criminal law contexts The volume brings together the foremost authorities in this field from around the world to provide a concise self contained and technically rigorous account of environmental law as a single overall system Law as Change Paul Babie, Paul Leadbeter, 2014 In 2011 Professor Adrian J Bradbrook retired from a distinguished scholarly career spanning over forty years During this time he made a significant contribution to teaching and scholarship not only in property law specifically to leasehold tenancies law and easements and restrictive covenants but also to energy law especially the emerging and growing field of solar energy This book brings together those people who worked closely with Bradbrook each an expert in their own right to honour a career by critically engaging with the contributions Bradbrook made to property and energy law Each author has chosen a topic that both fits with their own cutting edge research and explores the related contributions made by Bradbrook Most unusually this collection ranges widely across property law energy law and human rights
