O. Brunn,2019-01-13 It was the five young men who called themselves The Original Dixieland Jazz Band who raised jazz from being a curious local and peculiarly Negro phenomenon into the greatest popular artform in history In 1916 they swept Chicago off its feet In 1917 they took New York by storm For the first time jazz became fashionable People crowded into Reisenwehr s Restaurant where they played They were in constant demand for shows and charity performances They accompanied Sophie Tucker and appeared on the same bill as

Caruso In March 1917 they made the first jazz record and their fame flew across the whole continent The record was the biggest seller in the R C A catalogue passing the magic million and easily outstripping the records of Caruso and Sousa s

Band which were the current popular idols But not content with America as their platform they also became the first group to export the new music And London too was caught up in the exciting rhythm and wild savage haunting gaiety of jazz For more than a year they played to packed houses They gave a command performance for King George V They were the sensation of the Victory Ball to celebrate the signing of the Treaty of Versailles When the band broke up for the first time in 1924 partly torn by inner dissension partly frustrated by the wave of indignation against the frenzied enthusiasm of their supporters in 1922 jazz was banned after midnight in New York City they had firmly established themselves as the top entertainment group in the United States and they had blazed a trail to success which all could follow They had proved that jazz was not merely a folk music which could only be appreciated by Negroes but the expression in a particularly exhilarating form of something which was an essential part of human nature Here at last is the book that tells the truth about how jazz music really began

THE GRAMOPHONE Dixieland Jazz Banjo Hal Leonard Corp.,2015-01-01 Banjo Tenor and plectrum banjos are key ingredients of Dixieland jazz music The bright percussive chord strums and flashy tremolo picking glissandos help define the genre In the 1920s when Dixieland jazz was at its zenith the four string banjo was the fretted instrument of choice because it could easily be heard above the simultaneous improv of the band s clarinet cornet saxophone and trombone frontline Electric guitars were not invented until a decade later The chord voicings in these expertly crafted arrangements were selected so that the melody notes were always within reach to enable the user to play chord melody style if desired The lead sheets consist of lyrics and two sets of chord diagrams tenor and plectrum positioned throughout the arrangements This collection of 45 songs includes Ain t Misbehavin Alexander s Ragtime Band Basin Street Blues Bill Bailey Won t You Please Come Home Honeysuckle Rose I Got Rhythm Lazy River St Louis Blues Sweet Georgia Brown Way down Yonder in New Orleans and more
