Autobiography And Decolonization Modernity Masculinity And The Nation State Wisconsin Studies In Autobiography:

Autobiography and Decolonization Philip Holden, 2008 Philip Holden reveals deeply gendered connections between the writing of individual lives and of the narratives of nations emerging from colonialism Autobiography and Decolonization is the first book to give serious academic attention to autobiographies of nationalist leaders in the process of decolonization attending to them not simply as partial historical documents but as texts involved in remaking the world views of their readers Holden examines Mohandas K Gandhi's An Autobiography The Story of My Experiments with Truth Marcus Garvey's fragmentary Autobiography Joseph Ephraim Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound Lee Kuan Yew's The Singapore Story Nelson Mandela's Long Walk to Freedom Jawaharlal Nehru's An Autobiography and Kwame Nkrumah's Ghana The Autobiography of Kwame Nkrumah Holden argues that these examples of life writing have had significant influence on the formation of new and often profoundly gendered national identities These narratives constitute the nation less as an imagined community than as an imagined individual Moving from the past to the promise of the future they mediate relationships between public and private and between individual and collective stories Ultimately they show how the construction of modern selfhood is inextricably linked to the construction of a postcolonial polity

Postcolonial George Eliot Oliver Lovesey, 2017-08-17 This book examines the range of the colonial imaginary in Eliot's works from the domestic and regional to ancient and speculative colonialisms It challenges monolithic hegemonic views of George Eliot whose novelistic career paralleled the creation of British India and also dismissals of the postcolonial as ahistorical It uncovers often overlooked colonized figures in the novels It also investigates Victorian Islamophobia in light of Eliot's impatience with ignorance intolerance and xenophobia as well as her interrogation of the make believe of endings Drawing on a range of sources from Eugène Bodichon's Algerian anthropological texts the Persian journals of John Martyn and postmodern re-engagements Postcolonial George Eliot has implications for an understanding of the globalization of English the decolonization of disciplinarity and periodization and the roots of present day conflict in the wider Mediterranean world

Auto/Biography across the Americas Riccia A. Chansky, 2016-08-05 Auto biographical narratives of the Americas are marked by the underlying themes of movement and belonging This collection proposes that the impact of the historic or contemporary movement of peoples to in and from the Americas whether chosen or forced motivates the ways in which identities are constructed in this contested space Such movement results in a cyclical quest to belong and to understand belonging that reverberates through narratives of the Americas The volume brings together essays written from diverse national cultural linguistic and disciplinary perspectives to trace these transnational motifs in life writing across the Americas Drawing on international scholars from the seemingly disparate regions of the Americas North America the Caribbean and Latin America this book extends critical theories of life writing beyond limiting national boundaries The scholarship included approaches narrative inquiry from the fields of literature linguistics history art history sociology anthropology political science pedagogy gender studies critical race studies and indigenous studies As a whole this volume advances discourse in auto biography studies life writing and identity studies by locating transnational themes in narratives of the Americas and placing them in international and interdisciplinary conversations Singapore Literature and Culture Angelia Poon, Angus Whitehead, 2017-03-03 This book brings Anglophone Singapore literature to a global audience for the first time embedding it within literary developments worldwide Drawing on postcolonial studies Singapore studies and critical discussions in transnationalism and globalization essays introduce neglected writers cast new light on established writers and examine texts in relation to their local historical contexts while engaging with contemporary issues in Singapore society It sets new directions for further scholarship on a body of writing that has much to say to those interested in issues of nationalism diaspora cosmopolitanism neoliberalism immigration urban space and literary form and content Neoliberal Morality in Singapore Youyenn Teo, 2013-11-11 Using the case study of Singapore this book examines the production of a set of institutionalized relationships and ethical meanings that link citizens to each other and the state It looks at how questions of culture and morality are resolved and how state society relations are established that render paradoxes and inequalities acceptable and form the basis of a national political culture The Singapore government has put in place a number of policies to encourage marriage and boost fertility that has attracted much attention and are often taken as evidence that the Singapore state is a social engineer The book argues that these policies have largely failed to reverse demographic trends and reveals that the effects of the policies are far more interesting and significant As Singaporeans negotiate various rules and regulations they form a set of ties to each other and to the state These institutionalized relationships and shared meanings referred to as neoliberal morality render particular ideals about family natural Based on extensive field work the book is a useful contribution to studies on Asian Culture and Society Globalisation as well as Development Studies *African Studies Association Annual Meeting.
