

"And The Band Played Waltzing Matilda"

- Eric Bogle

Now when I was a young man, I carried me pack, and I lived the free life of a rover

From the Murray's green basin to the dusty outback, well, I waltzed my Matilda all over.

Then in 1915, my country said son, it's time you stopped rambling, there's work to be done.

So they gave me a tin hat, and they gave me a gun, and they marched me away to the war.

Rhyme

And the band played Waltzing Matilda, as the ship pulled away from the quay.

And amidst all the cheers, the flag-waving and tears, we sailed off for Gallipoli.

Refrain

And how well I remember that terrible day, how our blood stained the sand and the water

And of how in that hell that they called Suvla Bay, we were butchered like lambs at the slaughter.

Johnny Turk he was waiting, he'd primed himself well. He shower'd us with bullets.

~~And he rained us with shell. And in five minutes flat, he'd blown us all to hell.~~

Nearly blew us right back to Australia.

Simile

Metaphor

But the band played Waltzing Matilda, when we stopped to bury our slain. We buried ours, and the Turks buried theirs, then we started all over again.

And those that were left, well we tried to survive, in that mad world of blood, death and fire.

And for ten weary weeks, I kept myself alive, though around me the corpses piled higher.

Then a big Turkish shell knocked me arse over head, and when I woke up in my hospital bed,

And saw what it had done, well I wished I was dead. Never knew there was
