Markets,

Rights and Power in Australian Social Policy Professor Gabrielle Meagher, Susan Goodwin, 2015-04-30 The provision of social services in Australia has changed dramatically in recent decades raising a range of important questions about financial and democratic accountability who benefits who suffers and who decides This book explores these developments through rich case studies of a diverse set of social policy domains The case studies demonstrate a range of effects of marketisation including the impact on the experience of consumer engagement with social service systems on the distribution of social advantage and disadvantage and on the democratic steering of social policy Theorising Social Exclusion Ann Taket, Beth R. Crisp, Annemarie Nevill, Greer Lamaro, Melissa Graham, Sarah Barter-Godfrey, 2009-09-10 Social exclusion attempts to make sense out of multiple deprivations and inequities experienced by people and areas and the reinforcing effects of reduced participation consumption mobility access integration influence and recognition This book works from a multidisciplinary approach across health welfare and education linking practice and research in order to improve our understanding of the processes that foster exclusion and how to prevent it Theorising Social Exclusion first reviews and reflects upon existing thinking literature and research into social exclusion and social connectedness outlining an integrated theory of social exclusion across dimensions of social action and along pathways of social processes A series of commissioned chapters then develop and illustrate the theory by addressing the machinery of social exclusion and connectedness the pathways towards exclusion and finally experiences of exclusion and connection This innovative book takes a truly multidisciplinary approach and focuses on the often neglected cultural and social aspects of exclusion It will be of interest to academics in fields of public health health promotion social work community development disability studies occupational therapy policy sociology politics and environment Supervision in Social Work Liz Beddoe, Jane Maidment, 2017-10-02 Supervision is currently a hot topic in social work The editors of this volume both social work educators and researchers believe that good supervision is fundamental to the development and maintenance of effective practice in social work Supervision is seen as a key vehicle for continuing development of professional skills the safeguarding of competent and ethical practice and oversight of the wellbeing of the practitioner As a consequence the demand for trained and competent supervisors has increased and a perceived gap in availability can create a call for innovation and development in supervision This book offers a collection of chapters which contribute new insights to the field Authors from Australia and New Zealand where supervision inquiry is strong offer research informed ideas and critical commentary with a dual focus on supervision of practitioners and students Topics include external and interprofessional supervision retention of practitioners practitioner resilience and innovation in student supervision This book will be of interest to supervisors of both practitioners and students and highly relevant to social work academics This book was originally published as a special issue of Australian Social Work Information Sources in the Social Sciences David Fisher, Sandra Price, Terry Hanstock, 2018-02-19 No detailed description available for Information Sources in the Social Sciences
