Australia's Most Murderous Prison Behind The Walls Of Goulburn Jail:

Australia's Most Murderous Prison James Phelps, 2016-08 An unprecedented spate of murders in the 1990s seven in just three years made Goulburn jail the most feared prison in Australia Inmates who were sent to the towering sandstone menace located an hour and half south west of Sydney declared they had been given the death sentence Every man who entered the prison was marked for death and not because of his crime In the Killing Fields you were murdered because of the colour of your skin The worst race war in the history of Australian prisons saw four groups the Aborigines the Lebanese the Asians and rest wage a vicious and uncontrollable war as they battled for control of the prison drug trade Every day there were stabbings Every day there were bashings And when they weren't being bashed or stabbed they were being murdered The vicious riot the one that saw guards belted with didgeridoos and stabbed with broken broomsticks put an end to the segregation that saw Goulburn jail the only prison in the world to separate men by race It also ended the Killing Field But soon something far scarier would rise something called SuperMax Called a variety of things from Australia's most secure prison to a hell hole SuperMax is the only prison has seen complaints referred to the United Nations All white walls and solitary confinement it is where Australia's most evil men are locked away It is home to Ivan Milat to the Cobby Killers to Bilal Skaf and to Bassam Hamzy to name a few And soon you will meet them all murderers rapists terrorists This is Australia's Most Murderous Prison the Killing Fields Inside the Walls of Goulburn Jail

Gangland: The Great Escapes James Morton, Susanna Lobez, 2018-07-30 Since the arrival of the First Fleet thousands of prisoners have escaped from prison police stations courts prison vans and hospitals even dentists chairs They have driven walked pedalled swum or sailed away from custody Some have killed or been killed in the process a few have gone overseas or escaped from foreign prisons and a handful have remained at home undetected Gangland The Great Escapes is filled with tall tales of crims Ronald Ryan Jockey Smith Brenden Abbott Julie Wright and Annie Davis and many others who have been recaptured in minutes and those who have stayed on the run

Mr. Asia: The Last Man Standing Jim Shepherd, 2010-06-01 Do not think for one instant that a life of crime is glamorous and exciting It is not It is a life of degradation dishonesty misery violence and loss of liberty It has been more than 30 years since the Mr Asia drug syndicate came apart when the handless toothless body of Martin Johnstone was found dumped in a quarry in England The members of the syndicate were responsible for a string of dead bodies all over the world and the importation of hundreds of kilograms of heroin and marijuana into Australia New Zealand and Britain and they made tens of millions of dollars doing it In this never before heard story from the only surviving member of the syndicate James Shepherd tells of Mr Asia's rise and fall in gritty horrifying detail This is not the flashy glamourised account put forward in Underbelly but raw unadulterated truth James Shepherd was named by the 1983 Stewart Royal Commission as second in charge of the Mr Asia Drug Syndicate and was given a 25 year sentence for his role The long years spent in jail contemplating the murder and misery caused by the syndicate convinced him that the full story needed to be told as a warning to others if nothing else The result is something unique as fascinating as it is horrifying It s the real insiders account of the multi million dollar kill or be killed world of our most notorious international drug syndicate American Prisons and Jails Vidisha Barua Worley,Robert M. Worley,2018-12-07 This two volume encyclopedia provides a comprehensive and authoritative examination of the history and current character of American prisons and jails and their place in the U S corrections system This encyclopedia provides a rigorous and comprehensive summary of correctional systems and practices and their evolution throughout US history Topics include sentencing norms and contemporary developments differences between local jails and prisons and regional state and federal systems violent and nonviolent inmate populations operations of state and federal prisons including well known prisons such as ADX Florence Alcatraz Attica Leavenworth and San Quentin privately run for profit prisons as well as the companies that run them inmate culture including prisoner generated social hierarchies prisoner slang gangs drug use and violence prison trends and statistics including racial ethnic age gender and educational breakdowns the death penalty and post incarceration outcomes including recidivism The set showcases contributions from some of the leading scholars in the fields of correctional systems and practices and will be a valuable resource for anyone interested in learning more about American prisons jails and community corrections Australia's Most Murderous Prison James Phelps,2015-08-06 An unprecedented spate of murders in the 1990s seven in just three years earned Goulburn Jail the ominous name of The Killing Fields Inmates who were sentenced or transferred to the 130 year old towering sandstone menace declared they had been given a death sentence Gang alliances power plays contracted hits the ice trade the colour of your skin even mistaken identity any number of things could seal your fate The worst race war in the history of Australian prisons saw several groups Aboriginal Lebanese Asian Islander and Anglo wage a vicious and uncontrollable battle for power Every day there were stabbings Every day there were bashings And then there was murder A controversial policy known as racial clustering might have put an end to the Killing Fields but soon something far scarier would arise something called Supermax Within the stark white walls clinical halls and solitary confinement it is where Australia s most evil men are locked away It is home to serial killer Ivan Milat the Terror Five militants who plotted attacks across Sydney in 2005 Brothers 4 Life founder Bassam Hamzy and gang rapist Bilal Skaf to name a few Murderers terrorists serial killers gangsters and rapists soon you will meet them all inside Australia s most murderous prison Towards Human Rights Compliance in Australian Prisons Anita Mackay,2020-11-11 Imprisoned people have always been vulnerable and in need of human rights protections The slow but steady growth in the protection of imprisoned people s rights over recent decades in Australia has mostly come from incremental change to prison legislation and common law principles A radical influence is about to disrupt this slow change Australian prisons and other closed environments will soon be subject to international inspections by the United Nations Subcommittee on the Prevention of Torture SPT This is because the Australian Government ratified the Optional Protocol to the Convention Against Torture and other Cruel Inhuman or

Degrading Treatment or Punishment OPCAT in December 2017 Australia's international human rights law obligations as they apply to prisons are complex and stem from multiple Treaties This book distils these obligations into five prerequisites for compliance consistent with the preventive focus of the OPCAT They are reduce reliance on imprisonment align domestic legislation with Australia's international human rights law obligations shift the focus of imprisonment to the goal of rehabilitation and restoration support prison staff to treat imprisoned people in a human rights consistent manner ensure decent physical conditions in all prisons Attention to each of these five areas will help all levels of Australian government and prison managers take the steps required to move towards compliance Human rights led prison reform is necessary both to improve the lives of imprisoned people and for Australia to achieve compliance with the international human rights legal obligations to which it has voluntarily committed itself Correction, 1939 This Errant Lady Jane Franklin, 2002 Jane Franklin's diary account of her travels from Van Diemen's Land to Port Phillip and then overland from Melbourne to Sydney in 1839 provides a detailed and colourful snapshot of colonial society recorded by a sharply observant witness back cover includes brief references to Aboriginal people John Bull, 1844 Australia's Toughest Prisons: Inmates James Phelps, 2016-08 These are the true and uncensored accounts of Australia's hardest inmates from Australia's hardest inmates Martin Bryant who killed 35 people and injured another 23 at Port Arthur in 1996 is a 160kg slob who trades sex for chocolate in Risdon Prison Twenty years after Australia's worst massacre his blond hair is gone and so is his self righteous smirk but he is as evil as ever showing no remorse for the crimes that shook the nation He is just one of the killers in the rogues gallery of Australia's Toughest Prisons Inmates You will meet the alleged hitman and undisputed hardman called Goldie feared by both prisoners and guards alike John Reginald Killick will tell you how he really escaped from Silverwater Jail in a helicopter and survived Pentridge Prison's notorious Hell Block And former Rugby League star Craig Field will tell you his incredible story of how one wrong pub punch landed him in prison limbo From the rise of ISIS gangs the lethal underground drug and tobacco trade and the threat of contraband phones to shiv fights brawls and white collar criminal beat downs the secret lives of Australia's most dangerous men will be on full display Award winning author and journalist James Phelps reveals the horror of life inside Australia's most notorious prisons including Grafton Cessnock Pentridge Minda Risdon Silverwater and Lithgow
