Plateresque facade as a form of visual rhetoric that conveyed ideas about the individual and communal cultural identities in sixteenth century Yucatán. This contextualization allows for an examination of the architectural rhetoric of the facade the design of which visualizes the contestations of autonomy and authority occurring among the colonial peoples.

A Troubled Marriage Sean F. McEnroe, 2020-04 A Troubled Marriage describes the lives of native leaders whose resilience and creativity allowed them to survive and prosper in the traumatic era of European conquest and colonial rule. They served as soldiers, scholars, artists, artisans, and missionaries within early transatlantic empires and later nation states. These Indian and mestizo men and women wove together cultures shaping the new traditions and institutions of the colonial Americas. In a comparative study that spans more than three centuries and much of the Western Hemisphere, McEnroe challenges common assumptions about the relationships among victors, vanquished, and their shared progeny.

La Madre Del Maiz Gilbert R. Cruz, 2012 The story of Guadalupe conforms to Mary's maternal duty. The maternal duty of Mary towards men in no way obscures or diminishes this unique mediation of Christ; rather, it shows its power. For all the influences of Blessed Virgin Mary on men, originate not from necessity but from divine pleasure. They flow from the abundance of the merits of Christ; rest on his mediation; depend entirely on it; and draw its power from it. In no way do they impede the immediate union of the faithful with Christ. Rather, they foster it.
