Bilingual Development And Literacy Learning East Asian And International Perspectives:

Bilingual Development and Literacy Learning Norbert FRANCIS, 2012-07-01 A major part of this book is devoted to the presentation of a series of proposals for collaborative research with investigators working in East Asia on cross writing system comparisons and bilingual literacy comparing alphabetic and morpho syllabic literacy Children's Literacy Development Catherine McBride, 2015-12-14 In the thoroughly updated second edition of this unique book Catherine McBride examines how the languages we know help structure the process of becoming literate Taking an ecological and distinctively cross cultural perspective the book looks at reading and writing development and impairment across a range of languages scripts and contexts The book covers issues including The importance of phonological sensitivity for learning to read and to write The first units or building blocks of literacy learning in different scripts such as Chinese English Korean Hangul Hebrew Hindi and Arabic The role of visual processing in reading and writing skills How the latest research can inform the teaching of reading An overview of our understanding of dyslexia including recent neuroscientific research The developmental challenges in becoming biliterate What is special about writing for beginners and later for comprehensive writing Basics of reading comprehension Children's Literacy Development Second Edition is a timely and important contribution to our understanding of literacy around the world Written by an eminent scholar in the field it is the only book available that provides an overview of how children learn to read and write in different languages and will be essential reading for all students of Developmental Psychology Educational Psychology Psycholinguistics and Speech Therapy

Individual Differences in Anaphora Resolution Georgia Fotiadou, Ianthi Maria Tsimpli, 2023-11-15 Individual Differences in Anaphora Resolution Language and cognitive effects explores anaphora resolution from different perspectives and investigates various aspects of the phenomenon as contributions include research protocols that combine old and new experimental methodologies as well as theoretical and empirical approaches A central theme across volume contributions are the multiple linguistic and extralinguistic factors that constrain anaphora resolution its processing and acquisition by a variety of populations children and adults monolinguals bilinguals and second language learners as well as the mechanisms underlying anaphora resolution Anaphora resolution constitutes an ideal environment to test the interaction between domain general cognitive systems and domain specific linguistic sub routines since variability in referential preferences is not related to binding constraints an integral part of syntax per se but is closely tied to processing functional constraints modulated by the integration of discourse filtered information The Texture of the Lexicon Ray Jackendoff, Jenny Audring, 2020 This volume offers a major reconceptualization of linguistic theory through the lens of morphology crucially collapsing the distinction between the lexicon and the grammar This approach accounts for both productive and non productive morphological phenomena and moreover integrates linguistic theory into psycholinguistics and human cognition
